The

Politics of Loss and Trauma in Contemporary Israeli Cinema Raz Yosef, 2012-05-23 The last decade has marked the growing visibility and worldwide interest in Israeli cinema. Films such as Walk on Water, Or My Treasure, Beaufort and Waltz with Bashir have been commercially and critically successful both in Europe and the United States and have won a number of prestigious international awards. This book examines for the first time the new ideological and aesthetic trends in contemporary Israeli cinema. More specifically, it critically explores the complex and crucial role of Israeli cinema in remembering and restaging traumas and losses that were denied entry into the shared national past. One of the most striking phenomena in contemporary Israeli cinema is the number and scope of films dealing with past traumatic events, events that were repressed or insufficiently mourned, such as the memory of the Holocaust, traumas from wars and terrorist attacks, and the losses entailed by the experience of immigration. Current Israeli cinema exposes and highlights a radical discontinuity between history and memory. Traumatic events from Israeli society's past are represented as the private memory of distinct social groups: soldiers, immigrants, women, queers, and not as collective memory as a lived and practiced tradition that conditions Israeli society. This detachment from national collective memory pulls the films into a world marked by a persistent blurring of the historical context and by private and subjective impressions: a timeless world of dreams, hallucinations, and myths. These groups feel duty bound to remember the past, recasting repressed memories through the cinema in order to return and to give meaning to their identity.

Shining Sun: In Memory of 'Allamah Tabataba'i Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Husayni Tihirani, 2011-01-01 Shining Sun is a tribute to the life and thought of the renowned Islamic scholar Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i, written soon after his death by one of his students. Shining Sun includes an overview of Tabataba'i's life and transcriptions of discussions between Tabataba'i and his students. These discussions cover history, philosophy, mysticism, theology, and the Qur'an. Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i (1902-1981), commonly referred to as the most learned Allamah, was a prominent Muslim scholar who breathed new life into the Shi'a seminaries by establishing courses on the interpretation of the Qur'an and by introducing a novel method of Qur'anic interpretation. He was a master of Islamic philosophy and a model of spirituality. Allamah Tabataba'i is undoubtedly the major Shi'a thinker of modern times, and his impact on Persian philosophy and theology is incomparable. Anyone who approaches his work is bound to be impressed by it, and the fertility of his thought can be seen in the considerable contributions that his many students have continued to make to Islamic philosophy. It is wonderful to see the Persian tradition of respecting great personalities in writing continuing in modern times. Oliver Leaman, University of Kentucky, USA.
