Flashpoint At The Front Line Of Today's Wars Claims To Fame:

South African Armour of the Border War 1975-89 Kyle Harmse, Simon Dunstan, 2017-02-23 The Border War saw the biggest armoured battles in Africa since World War II Starting as a counter insurgency operation by the South African Defence Force SADF against the South West Africa People's Organisation South Africa became embroiled in the complex Angolan Civil War where they came up against enemies well supplied with equipment and armoured vehicles from the Soviet Union With the aid of stunning illustrations and photographs this study details the characteristics capabilities and performance of the wide variety of armoured vehicles deployed by the SADF from the Eland armoured car to the Ratel infantry combat vehicle and the Olifant tank Designed for the unique conditions of the region South Africa's armour was distinctive and innovative and has influenced the design of counterinsurgency armoured vehicles around the world Frequently requested by Osprey readers and written by two renowned experts on armoured vehicles this will appeal to all those interested in modern armour and the Cold War proxy wars

The Cuban Intervention in Angola, 1965-1991

Edward George, 2004-11-23 A new examination of why Cuba a Caribbean country sent half a million of its citizens to fight in Angola in Africa and how a short term intervention escalated into a lengthy war of intervention It clearly details how in January 1965 Cuba formed an alliance with the Angolan MPLA which evolved into the flagship of its global internationalist mission spawning the military intervention of November 1975 culminating in Cuba's spurious victory at Cuito Cuanavale and Cuba's fifteen year occupation of Angola Drawing on interviews with leading protagonists first hand accounts and archive material from Cuba Angola and South Africa this new book dispels the myths of the Cuban intervention revealing that Havana's decision to intervene was not so much an heroic gesture of solidarity but rather a last ditch gamble to avert disaster By examining Cuba's role in the Angolan War in a global context this book demonstrates how the interaction between the many players in Angola shaped and affected Cuba's intervention as it headed towards its controversial conclusion

Between Containment and Rollback Christian F. Ostermann, 2021-04-27 In the aftermath of World War II American policymakers turned to the task of rebuilding Europe while keeping communism at bay In Germany formally divided since 1949 the United States prioritized the political economic and eventually military integration of the fledgling Federal Republic with the West The extraordinary success story of forging this alliance has dominated our historical understanding of the American German relationship Largely left out of the grand narrative of American German relations were most East Germans who found themselves caught under Soviet and then communist control by the post 1945 geopolitical fallout of the war that Nazi Germany had launched They were the ones who most dearly paid the price for the country's division This book writes the East Germans both leadership and general populace back into that history as objects of American policy and as historical agents in their own right Based on recently declassified documents from American Russian and German archives this book demonstrates that U S efforts from 1945 to 1953 went beyond building a prosperous democracy in western Germany and containing Soviet Communist power to the east Under the Truman and then the Eisenhower administrations American policy also included efforts to undermine and roll back Soviet and German communist control in the eastern part of the country This story sheds light on a dark er side to the American Cold War in Germany propaganda covert operations economic pressure and psychological warfare Christian F Ostermann takes an international history approach capturing Soviet and East German responses and actions and drawing a rich and complex picture of the early East West confrontation in the heart of Europe
