Flaubert Et La Creation Litteraire:

Flaubert Et la Creation Litteraire P. M. Wetherill, 'Les Tentations de saint Antoine' and Flaubert's Fiction Mary Neiland, 2022-11-07 This book reveals the extensive and dynamic interplay between Les Tentations de saint Antoine and the rest of Flaubert's fiction Mary Neiland combines two critical approaches genetic and intertextual criticism in order to trace the development of selected topoi and figures across the three versions of La Tentation and on through Flaubert's other major works Each chapter is devoted to one of these centres of interest namely the banquet scene the cityscape the crowd the seductive female and the Devil Detailed study of these five areas exposes a remarkable intimacy between writings that appear at a far remove from each other The networks of recurring images located demonstrate for the first time the obsessive nature of Flaubert's writing practice the pursuit of these networks across his fictional writings exposes his developing technique and La Tentation is revealed as both a privileged moment of expression and as a place of auto reflection This volume will be of interest to students and specialists of Flaubert as well as to those interested in genetic and intertextual criticism

The King & the Adulteress Roberto Speziale-Bagliacca, 1998 This is a psychoanalytic study of Madame Bovary and King Lear that produces radically different and compelling understanding of these works Flaubert et la création littéraire Peter Michael Wetherill, 1964-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérique d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine La création littéraire au XIXe siècle Jean-Yves Tadié, 2011-08-31 Cette synthèse expose les idées qui structurent la vie littéraire et les grands thèmes communs aux écrivains du XIXe siècle l'affirmation de l'individu contre une évolution économique et sociale qui le dépasse la présence obsédante de l'imaginaire etc Elle fournit des catégories permettant de saisir les constances et les variables d'une critique Irony and Satire in French Literature Philippe Desan, 2024-10-07 Nineteenth-century French Studies, 1985 L'Intime épistolaire (1850-1900) Jelena Jovicic, 2010-01-08 L'Intime épistolaire 1850-1900 genre et pratique culturelle is a study of private letters by eight Nineteenth Century French authors Flaubert Zola Sand Baudelaire Maupassant Eberhardt Bashkirtseff and Edmond de Goncourt during the period of 1850 to 1900 Through in depth analyses of these intriguing documents the book demonstrates that personal correspondences cast fresh light on the concept of intimacy in Nineteenth Century French culture Since epistolary writing implies a necessary exchange between lived experience and the written word the book's intention is also to interpret letter practice as a specific textual form with its own generic expectations and constraints which are distinct from other life writing genres such as the diary the autobiography and the memoir Divided into five chapters the study begins with a short introduction to the culture of individuality The four subsequent chapters explore the poetics of epistolary writing including significant topics the various roles of the letter writer epistolary pacts and the problem of the signature Addressing a wide range of epistolary situations including daily life health money problems love travel and even suicide notes the book also offers new critical perspectives on six of the most interesting manuscript letters that have been presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Cl zio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the original readings of Proust and Quignard to elaborate a novel theory of literary naturalism Drawing on contemporary biological perspectives the book argues that despite their opposition to traditional naturalism both understand human experience meaning making and creativity as being immanent to and as emerging from shared biological life Rethinking Literary Naturalism reads contemporary biosemiotic theory Proust and Quignard alongside each other in the context of a shared genealogy that leads back into nineteenth century philosophical and literary visions of natural life that are inherited from German Romanticism and Idealism Here biological theory and forms of literary practice are recast as distinct techniques of thought that aim to situate themselves in relation to biological life Each in its own way is shown to adopt an interpretative posture that steps back into the immanence of sense and meaning that is constitutive of qualitatively lived existence Each produces a different kind of knowledge scientific literary literary philosophical of shared biological life that can be understood as distinctive variations of a saying after life The novel literary naturalism that is rethought here can be understood as post dicative and as being entirely distinct from that of mile Zola Maupassant or the Goncourt brothers
