Urban Displacements Susanne Soederberg,2020-12-30 WINNER of the BISA IPEG Book Prize 2021 <https://www.bisa.ac.uk/members/working-groups/ipeg/articles/ipeg-2021-book-prize-winner-announced/> With an eye to further our understanding of everyday life in global capitalism Urban Displacements provides the first systemic critical political economy analysis of low income rental housing and social dislocations combining both theoretical advancements and detailed empirical studies centering on Berlin Dublin and Vienna Soederberg pushes beyond dominant debates by treating low rent housing as a unique commodity that provides a necessary place for the societal reproduction of labour power whilst being integrated into the global dynamics of capitalism She argues that historical and geographical configurations of monetized governance including landlords employers and inter scalar state practices have served to reproduce urban displacements and obfuscate their gendered class and racialized underpinnings The outcome is the everyday facilitation and normalization of urban poverty and social marginalization on one side and capital accumulation on the other Building on Soederberg s previous book Debtfare States and the Poverty Industry this accessible and interdisciplinary text will be useful to academics and students in political science sociology geography urban studies labour studies European studies and gender studies Two Paths, One Purpose : Voluntary Action in Ireland, North and South Nicholas Acheson,2004 Routledge International Handbook of Irish Studies Renée Fox,Mike Cronin,Brian Ó Conchubhair,2020-12-30 Routledge International Handbook of Irish Studies begins with the reversal in Irish fortunes after the 2008 global economic crash The chapters included address not only changes in post Celtic Tiger Ireland but also changes in disciplinary approaches to Irish Studies that the last decade of political economic and cultural unrest have stimulated Since 2008 Irish Studies has been directly and indirectly influenced by the crash and its reverberations through the economy political landscape and social framework of Ireland and beyond Approaching Irish pasts presents and futures through interdisciplinary and theoretically capacious lenses the chapters in this volume reflect the myriad ways Irish Studies has responded to the economic precarity in the Republic renewed instability in the North the complex European politics of Brexit global climate and pandemic crises and the intense social change in Ireland catalyzed by all of these Just as Irish society has had to dramatically reconceive its economic and global identity after the crash Irish Studies has had to shift its theoretical modes and its objects of analysis in order to keep pace with these changes and upheavals This book captures the dynamic ways the discipline has evolved since 2008 exploring how the age of austerity and renewal has transformed both Ireland and scholarly approaches to understanding Ireland It will appeal to students and scholars of Irish studies sociology cultural studies history literature economics and political science Chapter 3 5 and 15 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license Poverty and Inequality,2003 Let's Go Ireland 13th Edition Let's Go Inc.,2007-11-27 Offering a comprehensive guide to economical travel in diverse regions of the world these innovative new versions of the popular handbooks feature an all new look sidebars highlighting essential tips and facts information on a wide range of itineraries transportation options off the beaten path adventures expanded lodging and dining options in every price range additional nightlife options enhanced cultural coverage shopping tips maps 3 D topographical maps regional culinary specialties cost cutting tips and other essentials Dynamics of Political Change in Ireland Niall Ó Dochartaigh,Katy Hayward,Elizabeth Meehan,2016-12-19 This book examines the interrelated dynamics of political action ideology and state structures in Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland emphasising the wider UK and European contexts in which they are nested It makes a significant and unique contribution to wider European and international debates over state and nation and contested borders looking at the dialectic between political action and institutions examining party politics ideological struggle and institutional change It goes beyond the binary approaches to Irish politics and looks at the deep shifts associated with major socio political changes such as immigration gender equality and civil society activism Interdisciplinary in approach it includes contributions from across history law sociology and political science and draws on a rich body of knowledge and original research data This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of Irish Politics Society and History British Politics Peace and Conflict studies Nationalism and more broadly to European Politics A

Dublin Magdalene Laundry Mark Coen, Katherine O'Donnell, Maeve O'Rourke, 2023-01-26 Towards the end of the 20th century the decades of abuse and neglect perpetrated in Ireland's comprehensive carceral network began finally to be exposed The mistreatment endured by children and others on the margins of Irish society notably women in these orphanages reformatory schools industrial schools psychiatric hospitals County Homes Mother and Baby Homes adoption agencies and Magdalene Laundries now attracts increasing investigation and scholarship Bringing together contributions from leading experts across a broad range of disciplines including history philosophy law archaeology criminology accounting and architecture this book offers a comprehensive exploration of the Magdalene system through a close study of Donnybrook Magdalene Laundry in Dublin To date the Justice for Magdalenes Research group has recorded the names of 315 women and girls who died at Donnybrook Magdalene Laundry By focusing on this one institution on its ethos development operation and built environment and the lives of the girls and women held there this book reveals the underlying framework of Ireland's wider system of institutionalisation The analysis includes a focus on the privatisation and commodification of public welfare reproductive injustice institutionalised misogyny class prejudice the visibility of supposedly hidden institutions and the role of oral testimony in reconstructing history In undertaking such a close study the authors uncover truths missing from the state's own investigations shed new light on how these brutal institutions came to have such a powerful presence in Irish society and highlight the significance of their continuing impact on modern Ireland Policing and Social Marginalisation in Ireland Aogán Mulcahy, Eoin O'Mahony, 2005 Migrant Activism and Integration from Below in Ireland Ronit Lentin, Elena Moreo, 2012-02-17 This book analyzes the interaction between migrant activists and leaders and the state of the Republic of Ireland a late player in Europe's immigration regime against the background of an increasingly restrictive immigration regime American Government in Ireland, 1790-1913 Bernadette Whelan, 2013-07-19 This book reconstructs American consular activity in Ireland from 1790 to 1913 and elucidates the interconnectedness of America's foreign interests Irish nationalism and British imperialism Its originality lies in that it is based on an interrogation of American British and Irish archives and covers over one hundred years of American Irish and British relations through the post of the American consular official while also uncovering the consul's role in seminal events such as the War of 1812 the 1845-51 Irish famine the American Civil War Fenianism and mass Irish emigration It is a history of the men who filled posts as consuls vice consuls deputy consuls and consular agents It reveals their identities how they interpreted and implemented US foreign policy their outsider perspective on events in both Ireland and America and their contribution to the expanding transatlantic relationship The work intersects diaspora studies emigration history and diplomatic relations as well as illuminating the respective Irish American Anglo Irish and Anglo American relationships

Twentieth-Century Ireland (New Gill History of Ireland 6)

Dermot Keogh, 2005-09-27 Professor Dermot Keogh's Twentieth Century Ireland the sixth and final book in the New Gill History of Ireland series is a wide ranging informative and hugely engaging study of the long twentieth century surveying politics administrative history social and religious history culture and censorship politics literature and art It focuses on the consolidation of the new Irish state over the course of the twentieth century Professor Keogh highlights the long tragedy of emigration its effect on the Irish psyche and on the under performance of the Irish economy He emphasises the lost opportunities for reform of the 1960s and early 70s Membership of the EU had a diminished impact due to short term and sectionally motivated political thinking and an antiquated government structure Professor Keogh looks at how the despair of the 1950s revisited the country in the 1980s as almost an entire generation felt compelled to emigrate very often as undocumented workers in the United States Professor Keogh also argues that the violence in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s was an Anglo Irish failure which was turned around only when Britain acknowledged the role of the Irish government in its resolution He extends his analysis of the twentieth century to include a wide ranging survey of the most contentious events financial corruption child sexual abuse scandals in the Catholic Church between 1994 and 2005
