Focus On Believing:

Fueled by Faith Jennifer Kennedy Dean, 2005 Dean teaches Christian believers how to daily walk in faith with Scripture passages and content that are organized to allow readers to see how God's promises are fulfilled through one's experiences

Finding Faith John Simmons, 2015-10-22 Our sin nature is designed to talk us out of God's promises To separate ourselves from our sin nature and follow the path God laid out for our lives we will need to rely on faith Finding Faith will share the keys of faith we need to use to unlock all of God's promises for our lives Finding Faith is a guide to equip us with the knowledge and understanding of how God designed faith as a tool we can use to change the future of our lives Faith is special to God and it is the only currency we have to see His will done in our lives When we find faith for God's will to be done in our lives we will not be worried about our circumstances because we are so confident in God to take care of all our troubles In Finding Faith John Simmons uses scripture and his engaging testimony to lay out a foundation for understanding the concepts of faith John also outlines practical application that we can use today to mature in our faith Finding Faith will answer all the basic questions about faith but goes on to explore how Our level of faith is measured by how we see our future We will find joy in our lives when we find faith The faith we learn from our relationships will increase our faith in God To overcome adversity doubt and our past through faith To recognize if we are walking in faith God answers our faithful prayers and much more

Rationality, Humility, and Spirituality in Christian Life Dennis Hiebert, 2020-02-27 As Euro American culture turns resolutely away from religiosity toward spirituality and becomes increasingly post Christian the ordinary everyday practice of Christian life is ever more questioned and in need of scrutiny In this interdisciplinary analysis Christians are first called to comprehend the excessive rationality that modernity has built into both the cognitive and organizational structure of contemporary Christian life They are then summoned to personify an authentic attitude of humility and in particular the virtue of intellectual humility that is most challenged and tested by religious convictions Going forward Christians are subsequently invited to live their faith more as an internally differentiated and open spirituality rather than an externally determined and regulated religiosity When we exhaust our rationality and are confronted with its limitations we are humbled by our finitude and animated by our spirituality

Religion Extended Elena Kalmykova, 2025-04-01 Religion Extended contributes to discussions of aspects of religion that go beyond the epistemology of belief incorporating other states such as understanding emotion knowledge of persons knowledge how as well as practice The author looks to bridge the gap in the study of religion between research of religious beliefs on the one hand and research of religious practices on the other She reconsiders key methodological concepts that traditional philosophy of religion and neighbouring disciplines e.g cognitive science of religion psychology of religion and theology take for granted such as religious belief and religious faith The book offers a compelling and provocative reframing of these notions by drawing on cutting edge developments in cognitive science as well as insights from an Orthodox Christian perspective which shed light on religion in important ways that tend to be neglected Presenting a challenge to the received conceptual framework this innovative and thought provoking volume will advance discussions and open new areas of research

A Grammar of the Ethics of John Jan G. van der Watt, 2019-11-12 Jan G van der Watt analyses in detail the ethics of John's letters against their respective socio historical backgrounds He then compares the ethics of the Gospel and Letters showing that the basic core narrative overlaps in these writings although some ethical material is applied in different ways to different situations A rich ethical landscape is revealed addressing issues like the importance of interpersonal relations which results in co operation through mutual love The author shows that the focus in 1 John is pastoral aiming at convincing the addressees not to be deceived by their schismatics but to strengthen their relationships with the eyewitness group In 2 John advice is given about visitors who threaten the church with false teachings while 3 John deals with a conflict about receiving travelling missionaries In both cases ethical guidelines are given which aim at protecting the group Volume 2 Dust Jacket Inside front Flap

Belief without Borders Linda A. Mercadante, 2014-02-05 Named A Best Spiritual Book of the Year by Spirituality Practice The last twenty years have seen a dramatic increase in nones people who do not claim any religious affiliation These nones now outnumber even the largest Protestant denominations in America They are not to be confused with secularists however for many of them identify themselves as spiritual but not religious SBNR The response to this dramatic change in American religion has been amazingly mixed While social scientists have been busy counting and categorizing them the public has swung between derision and adulation Some complain nones are simply shallow dilettantes narcissistically concerned with their own inner world Others hail them as spiritual giants and ground breaking pioneers Rarely however have these nones been asked to explain their own views beliefs and experiences In Belief without Borders theologian and one time SBNR Linda Mercadante finally gives these individuals a chance to speak for themselves This volume is the result of extensive observation and nearly 100 in depth interviews with SBNRs across the United States Mercadante presents SBNRs stories shows how they analyze their spiritual journeys and explains why they reject the claims of organized religion Surprisingly however Mercadante finds these SBNRs within as well as outside the church She reveals the unexpected emerging latent theology within this group including the interviewees creative concepts of divine transcendence life after death human nature and community The conclusions she draws are startling despite the fact that SBNRs routinely discount the creeds and doctrines of organized religion many have devised a structured set of beliefs often purposefully in opposition to doctrines associated with need for proper thinking Addressing the first aspect he answers questions such as Why should Christians think Is faith reasonable and rational How do we know God and How do we know the truth Addressing the second aspect he explores foundational beliefs for the Christian faith covering questions such as What is salvation What is sanctification How do we gain assurance and What does it mean to worship God Throughout the book he attempts to answer these questions with clarity and truthfulness by expounding Scripture using historical examples from the Reformation and exploring philosophical ideas This clearly reasoned timely book will help Christians live in assurance and confidence in God and preserve the gospel for future generations

The Evolution of Belief J. Gregory Steiner, 2018-06-28 The Dalai Lama once said that when science demonstrates something in opposition to a religious tenet the religious belief must step back Yet Christianity has often been resistant to such an approach and many modern educated Christians find themselves stuck at the intersection of science and traditional religious dogma and doctrine The Evolution of Belief provides new ways of thinking about essential items of Christian belief and the modern Christian is invited to move ahead in a credible way with the use of new analogies applied to creation incarnation redemption and other Christian beliefs and practices Author J Gregory Steiner shows how a so called baggage of beliefs hung on the clothesline of one's faith needs to be continually cleaned out and rejuvenated insisting that traditional understandings of Christianity should be made more palatable and accommodating of the discoveries of science and technology Viewed from an ever developing saga of historical influences upon Christian belief and the evidence provided by science there could very well be more questions generated than answers But this can result in a positive experience because credible insights into this novel perspective will truly lead one's faith further into the unending discovery of God

Christian Faith and Christian Learning Clare Watkins, James

Butler, 2025-07-31 Following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of Christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning Recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how Christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference Through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination British Methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of Christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice There is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning Theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the Spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of Christian lay people and their daily lives in learning Ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love
