Folding Ruler Star:

The Original Copy Roxana Marcoci, Geoffrey Batchen, Tobia Bezzola, 2010 Since its birth in the first half of the 19th century photography has offered extraordinary possibilities of isolating works of art for study and pleasure Through cropping focus angle of view distance and lighting as well as the ex post facto techniques of dark room manipulation collage montage and assemblage photographers not only interpret the artworks they record but create stunning reinventions The Original Copy Photography of Sculpture 1939 to Today presents a critical examination of the intersections between photography and sculpture Through a selection of nearly 300 outstanding pictures by more than 100 artists from the 19th century to the present The Original Copy explores how one medium has become implicated in the understanding of the other Photographs reproduced in this richly illustrated volume range in subject from inanimate objects to performing bodies and include major works by medium s most influential artists from early modernism to the present Folding Ruler Star Aaron B.

Kunin, 2005 These poems are conceived as a value neutral Paradise Lost In other words someone who is not god tells you to avoid a certain tree and you disobey the instruction the result is shame Two characters agree that one of them is supposed to worship and obey the other without actually believing that the other possesses any special qualities that would enforce obedience the first one disobeys the second one and has to be punished A body has five parts each part is alarmed

Descriptions of the parts set off the alarms Affect lives in the face and is measured with a ruler The measure is a five syllable line arranged in three line units Each poem is mirrored by another poem with the same title Affect, Psychoanalysis, and American Poetry John Steen, 2018-07-12 Poetry has often been defined by its closure its condensation of meaning and value into discrete self referential textual objects Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry challenges the dominant metaphor of poetic containers by turning to recent poetic texts that represent the contagious and uncontainable feelings of anxiety grief shame and rage From modernists Wallace Stevens to mid century poets Randall Jarrell Robert Creeley and Ted Berrigan and finally to contemporary practitioners Aaron Kunin and Claudia Rankine John Steen argues that new poetic techniques arise from the poetic productivity of negative affects and that a new model of poetic value can be found in poems that are instead of containers permeable social spaces of intimacy attachment and withdrawal Drawing from object relations psychoanalysis queer theory and affect theory Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry finds poetry s singularity in its unique capacity to represent anew the transmissible relational and uncontainable valences of feeling that structure and destabilize social life 12 X 12 Christina Mengert, Joshua Marie Wilkinson, 2009-04-16 This book includes the poetry by
