more sustainable and responsible approach to tourism development and the preservation of heritage As such it covers a wide range of audiences including economists architects planners tourism experts and decision makers interested in making use of cities available resources and features offering strategies to explore development opportunities through sustainable and responsible tourism along the Silk Road This book is a culmination of selected research papers from the first version of the International Conference on Silk Road Sustainable Tourism Development and Cultural Heritage SRSTDCH which was held in 2021 in collaboration with Aristotle University of Thessaloniki the European Interdisciplinary Silk Road Tourism Centre Greece and the 5th Edition of the International Conference on Cities Identity Through Architecture and Arts CITAA which was held in 2021 in collaboration with University of Pisa Italy      Radical Cataloging K.R. Roberto,2015-03-07 This collection of critical and scholarly essays addresses the state of cataloging in the world of librarianship The contributors including Sanford Berman Thomas Mann and numerous front line library workers address topics ranging from criticisms of the state of the profession and traditional Library of Congress cataloging to methods of making cataloging more inclusive and helpful to library users Other essay topics include historical overviews of cataloging practices and the literature they generate first person discussions of library workers experiences with cataloging or metadata work and the implications behind what materials get cataloged who catalogs them and how Several essays provide a critical overview of innovative cataloging practices and the ways that such practices have been successfully integrated in many of the nation s leading libraries Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here      Congressional Record United States. Congress,1998      For Folk's Sake Erin Morton,2016-11-01 Folk art emerged in twentieth century Nova Scotia not as an accident of history but in tandem with cultural policy developments that shaped art institutions across the province between 1967 and 1997 For Folk s Sake charts how woodcarvings and paintings by well known and obscure self taught makers and their connection to handwork local history and place fed the public s nostalgia for a simpler past The folk artists examined here range from the well known self taught painter Maud Lewis to the relatively anonymous woodcarvers Charles Atkinson Ralph Boutilier Collins Eisenhauer and Clarence Mooers These artists are connected by the ways in which their work fascinated those active in the contemporary Canadian art world at a time when modernism and the art market that once sustained it had reached a crisis As folk art entered the public collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and the private collections of professors at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design it evolved under the direction of collectors and curators who sought it out according to a particular modernist aesthetic language Morton engages national and transnational developments that helped to shape ideas about folk art to show how a conceptual category took material form Generously illustrated For Folk s Sake interrogates the emotive pull of folk art and reconstructs the relationships that emerged between relatively impoverished self taught artists a new brand of middle class collector and academically trained professors and curators in Nova Scotia s most important art institutions      Sociology about Art Sara Malou Strandvad,Quirijn Lennert van den Hoogen, Manuel Reyes, 2024-12-02 For sociologists making distributing and using art and cultural products constitute social practices yet sociologists disagree on how to investigate these practices Organised around three main schools of thought critical sociology symbolic interactionism and social systems theory Sociology about Art serves as an introduction to and a self reflective discussion about how sociologists study the Arts Providing a wide spectrum of approaches in art sociology the book focuses on examining not only the famously cited theorists notably Bourdieu Becker and Peterson but also offers an overview of the sociologists who are often overlooked Hennion Heinrich Luhmann and Van Maanen among others In presenting these various approaches the crux of discussion concerns the status of art in sociological analyses Following a critical assessment of the classical theories and assessing the risks of failing to observe the function of art the authors contend that the perspective on art works their forms affordances and meanings can and should be integrated into sociological research for it to become a sociology that is truly about art A vital resource for students seeking to understand sociological discourses surrounding art and set up their own research projects Sociology about Art will appeal to scholars and students of sociology with interests in the arts and cultural policy The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04 This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times Enhances readers appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society Arts Review ,1984
