Folk Ballads Ethics Moral Issues:

Folk Ballads, Ethics, Moral Issues Gábor Barna, Ildikó Kríza, 2002 Textual Scholarship and the Material Book Wim Van Mierlo, 2007 In the last decades the emphasis in textual scholarship has moved onto creation production process collaboration onto the material manifestations of a work onto multiple rather than single versions onto reception and book history Textual scholarship now includes not only textual editing but any form of scholarship that looks at the materiality of text of writing of reading and of the book The essays in this collection explore many questions about methodology and theory arising from this widening scope of textual scholarship The range of texts discussed from Sanskrit epic via Medieval Latin commentary through English and Scottish Ballads to the plays of Samuel Beckett and the stories of Guimarães Rosa testifies to the vigour of the discipline The range of texts is matched by a range of approach from theoretical discussion of how text happens to analysis of issues of book design and censorship the connections between literary and textual studies exploration of the links between reception and commodification in George Eliot and between information theory and paratext Through this diversity of subject and approach a common theme emerges the need to look further for common ground from which to continue the debate from a comparative perspective Sovereign Feminine Matthew Head, 2013-05-09 In the German states in the late eighteenth century women flourished as musical performers and composers their achievements measuring the progress of culture and society from barbarism to civilization Female excellence and related feminocentric values were celebrated by forward looking critics who argued for music as a fine art a component of modern polite and commercial culture rather than a symbol of institutional power In the eyes of such critics femininity a newly emerging and primarily bourgeois ideal linked women and music under the valorized signs of refinement sensibility virtue patriotism luxury and above all beauty This moment in musical history was eclipsed in the first decades of the nineteenth century and ultimately erased from the music historical record by now familiar developments the formation of musical canons a musical history based on technical progress the idea of masterworks authorial autonomy the musical sublime and aggressively essentializing ideas about the relationship between sex gender and art In Sovereign Feminine Matthew Head restores this earlier musical history and explores the role that women played in the development of classical music Acta Ethnographica Hungarica, 2005 Folklore and Nationalism in Europe During the Long Nineteenth Century Timothy Baycroft, David Hopkin, 2012-07-25 Using an interdisciplinary approach this book brings together work in the fields of history literary studies music and architecture to examine the place of folklore and representations of the people in the development of nations across Europe during the 19th century Folk Song Ian Russell, David Atkinson, 2004 Over the last thirty years there have been very few volumes published in the UK devoted to the study of folk song and the folk song revival much of the research in the field appearing in the pages of the Folk Music Journal or coming from North America This extensive collection of papers while not comprehensive is intended in part to fill this void and to make a contribution to the field of study It is the unashamed product of a major conference to mark the centenary of the founding of the Folk Song Society held at the University of Sheffield 10-12 July 1998 and organised jointly by the University's Department of Music and National Centre for English Cultural Tradition together with the English Folk Dance and Song Society the successor to the Folk Song Society since its merger with the English Folk Dance Society in 1932 p 1

The Szeged School of Ethnology Gábor Barna, 2004 The first university department of ethnology in Hungary was established in 1929 in the Franz Joseph University of Szeged This book examines the many stages of the university's history The first professor was the folklorist Sandor Solymosy 1864-1945 After his retirement the chair was not filled in Szeged from 1934 to 1947 In the 1940s many of the leading representatives of ethnography in Hungary in the 20th century were connected with the school Gyula Ortutay Istvan Talasi Bela Gunda and others In 1947 Sandor Balint 1904-1980 was appointed to the reorganized chair of ethnography The totalitarian dictatorship of socialism barely tolerated ethnography which it regarded as a national science and in 1965 Sandor Balint was condemned in a show trial and forced to retire Development of the department and the teaching of ethnography did not begin until the time of the change of political system 1989-1990 Full time training in ethnography folkloristics and cultural anthropology has been given since 1992-1993

The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology Jonathan P. J. Stock, Beverley Diamond, 2022-11-30 The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology is an in depth survey of the moral challenges and imperatives of conducting research on people making music It focuses on fundamental and compelling ethical questions that have challenged and shaped both the history of this discipline and its current practices In 26 representative cases from across a broad spectrum of geographical societal and musical environments authors collectively reflect on the impacts of ethnomusicological research exploring the ways our work may instantiate privilege or risk bringing harm as well as the means that are available to provide recognition benefit and reciprocation to the musicians and others who contribute to our studies In a world where differing ethical values are often in conflict and where music itself is meanwhile a powerful tool in projecting moral claims we aim to uncover the conditions and consequences of the ethical choices we face as ethnomusicologists thereby contributing to building a more engaged restructured discipline and a more globally responsible music studies The volume comprises four parts 1 sound practices and philosophies of ethics 2 fieldwork encounters 3 environment trauma collaboration and 4 research in public domains

A Philosophy of Song and Singing Jeanette Bicknell,2015-07-03 In Philosophy of Song and Singing An Introduction Jeanette Bicknell explores key aesthetic ethical and other philosophical questions that have not yet been thoroughly researched by philosophers musicologists or scientists Issues addressed include The relationship between the meaning of a song s words and its music The performer s role and the ensuing gender complications social ontology and personal identity The performer s ethical obligations to audiences composers lyricists and those for whom the material holds particular significance The metaphysical status of isolated solo performances compared to the continuous singing of opera or the interrupted singing of stage and screen musicals Each chapter focuses on one major musical example and includes several shorter discussions of other selections All have been chosen for their illustrative power and their accessibility for any interested reader and are readily available

Community Series: Towards a Meaningful Instrumental Music Education. Methods, Perspectives, and Challenges - Volume II Andrea Schiavio,Marja-Leena Juntunen,Dylan van der Schyff,Luc Nijs,2024-02-26 Trying to understand the complex interplay between effective learning and personal experience is one of the main challenges for instrumental music education Much of the research that focuses on effective learning outcomes often adopts experimental methodologies that do not allow for a thorough examination of the subjective and social processes that accompany each student s musical journey on the contrary contributions dedicated to the detailed analysis of the learners lived experience often do not offer generalizable outcomes to different types of learning and teaching

The Oxford Handbook of Ethics and Art James Harold,2023 Art has not always had the same salience in philosophical discussions of ethics that many other elements of our lives have There are well defined areas of applied ethics corresponding to nature business health care war punishment animals and more but there is no recognized research program in applied ethics of the arts or art ethics Art often seems to belong to its own sphere of value separate from morality The first questions we ask about art are usually not about its moral rightness or virtue but about its beauty or originality However it is impossible to do any serious thinking about the arts without engaging in ethical questions

On Counter-Enlightenment,

Existential Irony, and Sanctification Judah Matras, 2021-12-14 This book introduces the topics of Enlightenment Counter Enlightenment and social demography in Western art musics and demonstrates their historical and sociological importance. The essays in this book explore the concepts of existential irony and sanctification which have been mentioned or discussed by music scholars, historians, and musicologists only either in connection with specific composers' works (Shostakovich's in the case of existential irony) or very parenthetically merely in passing in the biographies of composers of classical musics. This groundbreaking work illustrates their generality and sociological sources and correlates in contemporary Western art musics.
