Forest and Crag Laura Waterman, Guy Waterman, 2019-02-28 Thirty years after its initial publication this beloved classic is back in print Superbly researched and written Forest and Crag is the definitive history of our love affair with the mountains of the Northeastern United States from the Catskills and the Adirondacks of New York to the Green Mountains of Vermont the White Mountains of New Hampshire and the mountains of Maine It's all here in one comprehensive volume the struggles of early pioneers in America's first frontier wilderness the first ascent of every major peak in the Northeast the building of the trail networks including the Appalachian Trail the golden era of the summit resort hotels and the unforeseen consequences of the backpacking boom of the 1970s and 80s Laura and Guy Waterman spent a decade researching and writing Forest and Crag and in it they draw together widely scattered sources What emerges is a compelling story of our ever evolving relationship with the mountains and wilderness a story that will fascinate historians outdoor enthusiasts and armchair adventurers alike

Losing the Garden Laura Waterman, 2025-02-01 In 1971 Laura and Guy Waterman left New York City for thirty seven acres in Vermont where they would live in a hand built cabin without running water or electricity for the next thirty years It was a life based largely in the nineteenth century a life of hauling their own water and growing their own food of lighting candles in the evening and heating their cabin with wood from the surrounding forest Combined with the trail tending they did in the alpine zone of the White Mountains and the books they wrote about environmental stewardship it made for a rewarding healthy and fruitful existence But that was only part of their story Guy's depression was another part and his ultimate decision to take his own life on the wintry summit of Mount Lafayette a decision he made with Laura's support was the crux a term climbers use to describe the hardest move on the climb Being a climber herself Laura had to confront the crux This meant taking a close look at Guy's suicide and asking herself a hard question How or why had she come to support the decision of the man she loved In Losing the Garden Laura Waterman comes to terms with her husband's long depression and the complex nature of a gifted humorous man who was driven by obsession self absorption and a strange lack of confidence Her account of her own marriage idyllic from the outside but riddled from within is nonetheless a love story a portrait of an intense and unusual marriage and an affirmation of life after loss

Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Maria Coffey, 2005-04 Maria Coffey's Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow is a powerful affecting and important book that exposes the far reaching personal costs of extreme adventure Without risk say mountaineers there would be none of the self knowledge that comes from pushing life to its extremes For them perhaps it is worth the cost But when tragedy strikes what happens to the people left behind Why would anyone choose to invest in a future with a high altitude risk taker What is life like in the shadow of the mountain Such questions have long been taboo in the world of mountaineering Now the spouses parents and children of internationally renowned climbers finally break their silence speaking out about the dark side of adventure Maria Coffey confronted one of the harshest realities of mountaineering when her partner Joe Tasker disappeared on the Northeast Ridge of Everest in 1982 In Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Coffey offers an intimate portrait of adventure and the conflicting beauty passion and devastation of this alluring obsession Through interviews with the world's top climbers or their widows and families Jim Wickwire Conrad Anker Lynn Hill Joe Simpson Chris Bonington Ed Viesturs Anatoli Boukreev Alex Lowe and many others she explores what compels men and women to give their lives to the high mountains She asks why despite the countless tragedies the world continues to laud their exploits With an insider's understanding Coffey reveals the consequences of loving people who pursue such risk the exhilarating highs and inevitable lows the stress of long separations the constant threat of bereavement and the lives shattered in the wake of climbing accidents Calling Wild Places Home Laura Waterman, 2024-02-01 This is some of the finest writing in Laura Waterman's long and distinguished career Anyone who values the history of conservation or the gnarled wilds of the Northeast or the complexities of the human spirit will find nourishment in these pages Bill McKibben author of Wandering Home In this new book Laura Waterman tells the full story of her unique life It began on the campus of a boy's school and took her to mountains growing her own food and writing In these pages readers find what it's like to grow up the daughter of the scholar who put the dashes back into Emily Dickinson's poetry how Waterman coped with that brilliant father's alcoholism her development as a groundbreaking climber and her homesteading life for almost three decades In these pages she reveals how she kept her strong sense of self while living with a dynamic lovable and often challenging man her late husband Guy Waterman She examines closely her role in his suicide on Mount Lafayette in 2000 Christine Woodside editor of Appalachia and the author of Libertarians on the Prairie Laura Ingalls Wilder Rose Wilder Lane and the Making of the Little House Books Queen of the Mountaineers Cathryn J.
