Finist The Falcon Prince:

Finist the Falcon Prince Andreï Platonovich Platonov,1973 A young woman goes off in search of prince who disguises himself as a falcon The Feather of Finist the Falcon Anonymous,2020-09-28 ONCE in olden times there was a merchant whose wife had died leaving him three daughters The eldest two were plain of face and hard of heart and cared for nothing but finery while the youngest was a good house keeper kind hearted and so beautiful that it could neither be told in a tale nor written down with a pen One day when the merchant set out for the Fair he called his three daughters and asked My dear daughters what do ye most desire me to buy for you The eldest answered Bring me a piece of rich brocade for a gown The second said Bring me a fine scarf for a shawl But the youngest replied Little father bring me only a scarlet flower to set in my window The two sisters laughed at her request Little fool they said what dost thou want of a scarlet flower Thou wouldst better ask for a new apron But she paid no heed and when the merchant asked her again she said Little father buy for me only the scarlet blossom The merchant bade them good by and drove to the Fair and whether in a short while or a long while he came again to his house He brought the rich brocade for the eldest daughter and the fine scarf for the second but he quite forgot to bring the little scarlet flower The eldest daughters were so rejoiced at their gifts that he felt sorry for his forgetfulness and to comfort her said to the youngest Never mind I shall soon go again to the Fair and shall bring thee a gift also And she answered It is no matter little father another time thou wilt remember And while her sisters cutting and sewing their fine stuffs laughed at her she was silent Time passed and again the merchant made ready to go to the Fair and calling his daughters he asked Well my daughters what shall I buy for you The eldest answered Bring me a gold chain and the second Buy me a pair of golden earrings but the third said Little father I want nothing but a scarlet flower to set in my window
