A Regional Miscellany, 1930 (1931, 1932). Edited by B.A. Botkin* Benjamin Albert BOTKIN,1930 The New Red Negro James Edward Smethurst,1999-04-15 The New Red Negro surveys African American poetry from the onset of the Depression to the early days of the Cold War It considers the relationship between the thematic and formal choices of African American poets and organized ideology from the proletarian early 1930s to the neo modernist late 1940s This study examines poetry by writers across the spectrum canonical less well known and virtually unknown The ideology of the Communist Left as particularly expressed through cultural institutions of the literary Left significantly influenced the shape of African American poetry in the 1930s and 40s as well as the content One result of this engagement of African American writers with the organized Left was a pronounced tendency to regard the re created folk or street voice as the authentic voice and subject of African American poetry Furthermore a masculinist rhetoric was crucial to the re creation of this folk voice This unstable yoking of cultural nationalism integrationism and internationalism within a construct of class struggle helped to shape a new relationship of African American poetry to vernacular African American culture This relationship included the representation of African American working class and rural folk life and its cultural products ostensibly from the mass perspective It also included the dissemination of urban forms of African American popular culture often resulting in mixed media high low hybrids Opportunity ,1930 Sterling A. Brown Joanne V. Gabbin,1994 Sterling A Brown s achievement and influence in the field of American literature and culture are unquestionably significant His poetry has been translated into Spanish French German and Russian and has been read in literary circles throughout the world He is also one of the principal architects of black criticism His critical essays and books are seminal works that give an insider's perspective of literature by and about blacks Leopold Sedar Senghor who became familiar with Brown's poetry and criticism in the 1920s and 1930s called him an original militant of Negritude a precursor of our movement Yet Joanne V Gabbin's book originally published in 1985 remains the only study of Brown's work and influence Gabbin sketches Brown's life drawing on personal interviews and viewing his achievements as a poet critic and cultural griot She analyzes in depth the formal and thematic qualities of his poetry revealing his subtle adaptation of song forms especially the blues To articulate the aesthetic principles Brown recognized in the writings of black authors Gabbin explores his identification of the various elements that have come together to create American culture
