From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, Robert Hodgson, 1997 Eighteen experts from a wide variety of academic and professional fields engage key questions in a series of thought provoking essays that define the emerging field of new media Bible translating and how the biblical message will be communicated in the culture and media of the 21st century

From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, 1997 Literary Encounters with the Reign of God Sharon H. Ringe, H.C. Paul Kim, 2004-02-03 Recognized scholars honor Robert Tannehill in this Festschrift The Challenge of Bible Translation Zondervan, 2009-05-18 An In Depth Look at Bible Translation The concerns issues and approaches The history The ins and outs of the translation task With a reach that covers the entire globe the Bible is the best selling most earnestly studied book of all time It has been translated into well over 1 000 languages from those of global reach such as English French and Arabic to a myriad of isolated tribal tongues Yet while most readers of the English Bible have a favorite version few understand how the different translations came about or why there are so many or what determines whether a particular translation is trustworthy Written in tribute to one of today s true translation luminaries Dr Ronald Youngblood The Challenge of Bible Translation will open your eyes to the principles the methods the processes and the intricacies of translating the Bible into language that communicates clearly accurately and powerfully to readers of many countries and cultures This remarkable volume marshals the contributions of foremost translators and linguists Never before has a single book shed so much light on Bible translation in so accessible a fashion In three parts this compendium gives scholars students and interested Bible readers an unprecedented grasp of 1 The Theory of Bible Translation 2 The History of Bible Translation 3 The Practice of Bible Translation The Challenge of Bible Translation will give you a new respect for the diligence knowledge and care required to produce a good translation It will awaken you to the enormous cost some have paid to bring the Bible to the world And it will deepen your understanding of and appreciation for the priceless gift of God s written Word Contributors Kenneth L Barker D A Carson Charles H Cosgrove Kent A Eaton Dick France David Noel Freedman Andreas J K stenberger David Miano Douglas J Moo Glen G Scorgie Mois s Silva James D Smith III John H Stek Mark L Strauss Ronald A Veenker Steven M Voth Larry Lee Walker Bruce K Waltke Walter W Wessel Herbert M Wolf

Fidelity and Translation Paul A. Soukup, Robert Hodgson, 1999-08 Essays that suggest ways to critically evaluate assess and use new media to communicate the message of Scripture Considers the oral visual and performative nature of the narrative as well as contemporary communication philosophy The Bible in Ancient and Modern Media Holly Heaton, Philip Ruge-Jones, 2009-01-01 This cutting edge volume has been brought together in honor of Thomas Boomershine author scholar storyteller innovator The particular occasion inviting this recognition of his work is the twenty fifth anniversary of the Society of Biblical Literature s section on The Bible in Ancient and Modern Media BAMM which Tom was instrumental in founding For two and half decades this program unit has provided scholars with opportunities to explore and experience biblical material in media other than silent print including both oral and multimedia electronic performances This book explores many though by no means all of the issues lifted up in those sessions over the years Contributors A K M Adam Adam Gilbert Bartholomew Arthur J Dewey Dennis Dewey Joanna Dewey Robert M Fowler Holly E Hearon David Rhoads Philip Ruge Jones Whitney T Shiner Marti J Steussy Richard W Swanson Mark as Story Kelly R. Iverson, Christopher W. Skinner, 2011 This volume celebrates Mark as Story and offers critique engagement and exploration of the new hermeneutical vistas that emerged in the wake of this pioneering study Translation Beyond Translation Studies Kobus Marais, 2022-10-06 What is translation Even as the scholarly viewpoint of translation studies has expanded over recent years the notion of translation has remained fixedly defined by its interlinguistic element However there are many different contexts and disciplines in which translation takes place for which this definition is entirely unsuitable Exploring translational aspects in contexts in which scholars do not think about translation this book considers the alternative uses of the term beyond the interlinguistic dimension Taking our understanding of translation back to its basic semiotic principles leading experts outline the wide variety of alternative fields of study practices applications and contexts in which the term translation is used Chapters examine 11 different fields of study exploring what the term translation means how it is used and what it could contribute to an enlarged understanding of translation as a concept In this way the volume argues for a reimagining of what we mean by translation providing an essential reference for anyone interested in how translation is understood and practiced beyond the narrow perspectives of the field of translation studies itself Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner, 2007 Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner's work illuminates the theological aspects of communication The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture

approach to study how emerging technologies impact individual and communal formation Faith Formation 40 looks at how our efforts to be story keepers story sharers and story makers have evolved over four eras of human communication Framed by the Great Commission imperative to make disciples this book offers a road map to help leaders develop goals to form inform and transform new members as well as long time believers within a faith community The author successfully illustrates that church success depends not only on knowing the Christian message of God's enduring love but also how to use today's tools appropriately for evangelization and faith formation

In Other Words Charles H. Cosgrove, W. Dow Edgerton, 2007-04-26 Foreword by Don Wardlaw This exceptional book by Charles Cosgrove and Dow Edgerton will be a rich resource for pastors wanting to reach their congregations in a fresh way Rather than discussing preaching in general or even a specific approach to preaching it focuses on a new way of engaging the biblical text for preaching In Other Words combines Cosgrove and Edgerton's critical acumen creative imagination and pastoral discernment to present contemporizing restatements of Scripture speaking timeless truths in modern speech In describing their incarnational translation the authors invite readers to imagine what the text might have looked like if produced in the preacher's own culture time and place Drawing on translation theory genre studies and recent hermeneutical theory they offer both a comprehensive theory of incarnational translation and a set of specific guidelines and examples for carrying it out

Through a Catholic Lens Peter Malone, 2007-04-16 Movies are often examined for subtext and dramatizations of social and psychological issues as well as current movements Studies of well known Catholic directors such as Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford have made the search for Catholic themes a reputable field of examination Through a Catholic Lens continues the search for these themes and examines the Catholic undercurrents by studying nineteen film directors from around the world Although these directors may or may not be practicing Catholics their Catholic background can be found in their writing and directing Each chapter written by a different contributor analyzes one film of each director for its Catholic motifs With the recent increase of cinema studies this collection will be of interest to students and academics as well as cinema buffs
