Jewish Traditions in Early Christian Literature, Volume 5 The Didache H.W.M. van den Sandt, David Flusser, 2002-01-01 This volume demonstrates that we should understand nascent Christianity and early Judaism as sharing to a large extent the same traditions. It throws fresh light on the Jewishness of the Two Ways teaching in Didache 1 6 as it presents a cautious reconstruction of the Jewish prototype of the Two Ways and traces the Jewish life situation in which the instruction could flourish. In the field of liturgical studies a significant contribution is made to the discussion of Didache 7 10. It improves our understanding of the Jewish provenance and historical development of Baptism and Eucharist. The book also presents an intriguing look into the ministry of itinerant apostles and prophets Didache 11 15 considering the larger environment of Jewish religious and cultural history.

Kempf, and others Hubert Jedin, John Patrick Dolan, 1969 Early Christian Fathers Cyril Richardson, 1995-12 This selection of writings from early church leaders includes work by Clement of Rome Ignatius Polycarp Irenaeus Athenagoras and Justin Martyr Long recognized for the quality of its translations introductions explanatory notes and indexes the Library of Christian Classics provides scholars and students with modern English translations of some of the most significant Christian theological texts in history Through these works each written prior to the end of the sixteenth century contemporary readers are able to engage the ideas that have shaped Christian theology and the church through the The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth, 2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide centuries ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader Fake Prophecy and Polluted Sacraments William Tabbernee, 2007 Fake Prophecy and Polluted Sacraments is an insightful case study of the opposition to Montanism an early Christian prophetic movement by Church and State both before and after catholic Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire Palladius: the Lausiac History Palladius (Bishop of Aspuna), 1965 Palladius has written an important history of early monasticism in Egypt with these biographic sketches or notes on some sixty holy men and women he had met or heard of The work dating from 419 or 420 is dedicated to Lausus the royal chamberlain at the court of Emperor Hippolytus Between East and West J. A. Cerrato, 2002 This is the first thorough analysis of the Theodosius II Hippolytus question in English in over a century Drawing on leading scholarship of the 20th century it untangles millennia of theory and points to the evidence of the Asian roots of the great biblical commentator Iulius Africanus Chronographiae Iulius Africanus, 2011-03-01 Iulius Africanus has rightly been called the Father of Christian Chronography His world chronicle is one of the few works of Christian literature pioneering a new genre Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages mainly articulated their reflection on history in the form of the world chronicle The work has not been preserved in its entirety the extant fragments have to be laboriously pieced together from the works of later authors To date there has not been a critical edition of this material and the edition in use today dates back nearly 200 years J M Routh 1814 This new edition in the GCS series closes an old gap in the programme of this series and at the same time marks a new beginning because this is the first edition ever in this series to be published with an English translation The edition establishes a completely new foundation for our knowledge of Early Christian historical thinking and in addition provides an important component in our understanding of an important epoch the Imperial Crisis of the 3rd century in which the new world of Late Antiquity began to develop out of the Hellenic Roman heritage The Life of Saint Severin (The Fathers of the Church, Volume 55) Eugippius, 2010-04 No description available Light from the Gentiles: Hellenistic Philosophy and Early Christianity Abraham J. Malherbe, 2013-10-10 Rather than viewing the Graeco Roman world as the background against which early Christian texts should be read Abraham J Malherbe saw the ancient Mediterranean world as a rich ecology of diverse intellectual traditions that interacted within specific social contexts These essays spanning over fifty years illustrate Malherbe's appreciation of the complexities of this ecology and what is required to explore philological and conceptual connections between early Christian writers especially Paul and Athenagoras and their literary counterparts who participated in the religious and philosophical discourse of the wider culture Malherbe's essays laid the groundwork for his magisterial commentary on the Thessalonian correspondence and launched the contemporary study of Hellenistic moral philosophy and early Christianity Sedulius, The Paschal Song and Hymns ,2013-06-05 This is the first complete English translation of the poetic works of Sedulius a Christian Latin poet of late antiquity whose biblical epic and hymns were enormously popular during the Middle Ages and the early modern period The introduction places the poet and his works into his historical and literary contexts followed by the Latin text of Sedulius's poetic works with English translation on facing pages Notes on linguistic and historical matters are designed to help the reader with little or no Latin and only some familiarity with Sedulius's classical and biblical sources Appendices supply texts and translations of incidental related materials including Sedulius's dedicatory letters biographical notices subscriptions and laudatory poems associated with Sedulius's works in the manuscript tradition and representative excerpts from Sedulius's own prose paraphrase of the Paschale Carmen The volume includes a bibliography and index

Butler's Lives of the Saints Alban Butler, Sarah Fawcett Thomas, 1995 The 200 year old Butler's Lives of the Saints has undergone a thorough revision and rewriting and is now presented as a 12 volume set categorized according to months of the year This volume includes those saints commemorated in November The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church: The medieval church Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen The Epistle to Diognetus Henry G. Meecham, 2024-02-22 In this volume Henry G Meecham provides a critical edition of the Greek text of the Epistle to Diognetus accompanied by a translation notes and introductory material The original publication has been lightly revised for a contemporary audience Continuity and Rupture in the Long Middle Ages Michael Edward Moore, 2024-08-26 The Long Middle Ages indicates a span of time extending from Antiquity across the Middle Ages to the Early Modern period The author tries to understand factors of historical continuity binding this period together and the periodic scenes of violent change that disrupted societies and traditions The Long Middle Ages were established on classical and biblical foundations while each generation interpreted and expanded on those origins The cohesion of the Long Middle Ages was brought about by continuous acts of reflection and renascence Scholarly practices and ideas of Antiquity were taken up in the monasteries and cathedral schools of the Middle Ages while during the Renaissance and then the Baroque period thinkers looked back to Antiquity and to the Middle Ages

Continuity and Rupture in the Long Middle Ages is an interdisciplinary approach to intellectual history which puts the history of ideas in the context of cultural political religious and legal history Medieval history is the central moment while continuity and change are found in traditions extending from the Lord's Prayer AD 30 to Jean Mabillon AD 1632 1707 and onward to moderns like Ernst Cassirer and Paul Ricoeur Readers will discover new significance in historical figures like the Venerable Bede Boniface of Mainz Charlemagne and Pope Formosus in the laws of medieval kings and bishops and institutions like the monastery of Cluny These essays gathered together for the first time in this Variorum volume offer powerful new interpretations for students and researchers in the fields of medieval studies legal and literary interpretation legal history and the history of European intellectual life from ancient to modern times
