Get Funded A Practical Guide For Scholars Seeking Research Support From Business:

Get Funded! Dorin Schumacher,1992 In a time of shrinking government support for academic research this manual for academics and researchers on how to persuade private businesses to sponsor research projects and programmes will be most welcome It includes practical down to earth suggestions for locating an appropriate company making the initial contact negotiating a research grant and writing and reporting research results As well as this Get Funded establishes a wider context of university industry ethical concerns and makes the case for a true partnership between academia and business

A Guide to Grants, Fellowships, and Scholarships in International Forestry and Natural Resources Damon Anthony Job,1995 The Art of Funding and Implementing Ideas Arnold R. Shore,John M. Carfora,2010-04-07 Takes the reader to a new level in proposal writing The authors have captured the gestalt of grant writing in a lucid fashion In short I think students would appreciate the clarity and insights this book offers Robert J Hard University of Texas at San Antonio As a research scientist who is frequently involved in proposal development myself it is clear to me that the authors have travelled the grant writer s path before John V Stone Michigan State University This resource provides a step by step approach to turning a research idea into a proposal worthy of funding demystifying the process as a result The authors present a proven approach to the development of research ideas alongside a systematic treatment of proposals section by section and project management function by function Highly accessible this book gives examples for each aspect of the proposal development and works through sketches of ideas to fully developed proposal sections Key Features Contains idea development linked to specific proposal sections Supports creativity that can be captured effectively and systematically one step at a time Uses sketches to facilitate idea development and make enhancement and revisions easy Allows for ease in trying out alternative formulations and revising preliminary approaches Provides international research proposals Key to understanding resources for proposing international research collaborations Shows how to manage a funded project Guides researchers and research staff in effectively implementing a funded project This book is appropriate for all graduate students across the health social and behavioral sciences who need guidance on writing successful compelling funding proposals Grants Jean M. Fromm,2007 Grants are available from thousands of sources both private and public To the grantseeker however this wealth of sources appears like an impenetrable jungle Where are the grants I need and what do I need to do to submit my ideas and proposals This book is designed to answer these questions by aiming the grantseeker to both the grant givers and by providing a bibliography of book for further research Winning and Managing Research Funding Jane Kenway,Rebecca Boden,Debbie Epstein,2007-01-30 The pressure to win funding to do research is felt by nearly all academics worldwide This book details strategies that you might adopt to get your research projects funded It also explains how to manage your research projects once they are funded It explains how generic university research funding mechanisms work so that you will be better equipped to navigate your way through the financial maze associated with various funding sources Grant
