Getting A Grant:

Getting the Grant Rebecca Gajda, Richard Tulikangas, 2005-08-15 Grant writing is not as daunting a task as it may seem at least not when you have experts to guide you In the first half of this book the authors explain what every grant writer needs to know and do to successfully secure funding You will learn the following How to locate different kinds of grant sponsors How to understand the Request for Proposals RFP How to write a persuasive proposal The second part of the book begins where most books on grant writing end Gajda and Tulikangas lead you through the steps to take immediately after a grant is awarded and the steps needed for long term sustainability They show you how to negotiate a budget develop a media plan and establish an organizational structure They explain how to create an evaluation plan and how to develop indicators of success The result is a clear blueprint for success as a grant writer and project manager By book s end you will enthusiastically agree with the authors You can do this How to Get Grant Money in the Humanities and Social Sciences Raphael Brewster Folsom, 2019-01-01 A valuable and engaging guide to applying for and getting grants in the humanities and social sciences Scholars in the humanities and social sciences need money to do research This book shows them how to get it In this accessible volume Raphael Folsom shares proven strategies in a series of short witty chapters It features tips on how graduate students postdocs and young faculty members can present themselves and their work in the best possible light The book covers the basics of the grant writing process including finding a mentor organizing a writing workshop conceptualizing the project on a larger scale and tailoring an application for specific submissions The book includes interviews with nine of the most respected scholars in the country each of whom has evaluated thousands of grant applications The first authoritative book on the subject Folsom s indispensable work will become a must have resource for years to come Find Grant Funding Now!
