Getting Around in Chinese Hilda Tao, 2000-06 Promotes practical use of language skills in everyday settings Using Chinese Classics for Intercultural Communicative Competence Jinai Sun, Xuehua Xiang, Li Ye, 2024-08-05 Using Chinese Classics for Intercultural Communicative Competence presents new strategies and tools for integrating Mandarin language teaching with fostering intercultural competencies through contemporary global lenses on Chinese classic texts Chinese classic texts are canonical works in Chinese culture published before 1911 They offer a window into deeply held cultural values which learners of the Chinese language would benefit from studying to facilitate meaningful intercultural dialogues With chapters covering classic Chinese texts such as Journey to the West Dream of the Red Chamber and The Romance of the Three Kingdoms this book will demonstrate the value importance and feasibility of teaching Chinese classic works for ICC development in the Chinese world language classroom and equip teachers with carefully planned classroom tested lesson models that demonstrate the innovative integrative models advocated in this book This book will be valuable for pre and in service Mandarin Chinese teachers across various institutional settings at different levels looking for ready materials and professional development resources The book can also be used as core material for teacher training programs

Angloscene Jay Ke-Schutte, 2023-02-07 A tremendously nuanced book that moves beyond the verities of postcolonial theory as much as liberal illusions of postracialism in the academy The ethnographic richness of Angloscene in its expositions of tropes and situated encounters is remarkable and pointed even poignant Dilip M Menon author of Changing Theory Concepts from the Global South Reflecting a critical sensibility from the Global South Jay Ke Schutte's book defies Euro American centric perspectives on language race and colonialism The innovative concept of the Angloscene offers an imaginative way to unpack the transnational power matrix that conditions Afro Chinese encounters Fan Yang author of Faked in China Nation Branding Counterfeit Culture and Globalization This book reveals the manner in which talk about signs of race and the racialization of those engaged in talk readily emerge hand in hand within social encounters so that to isolate them from each other is to lose sight of the processes through which inequity persists in social life even when it is abjured Asif Agha Francis E Johnston Term Professor of Anthropology University of Pennsylvania and Editor in Chief Signs and Society Traditional Chinese Plays Adolphe Clarence Scott, 1967 The world of traditional Chinese drama can be at once fascinating and bewildering to the uninitiated Western observer Attuned to his own dramatic conventions he is hard put to apprehend the delicate fusion of poetry music and subtle gesture which is the essence of Chinese theatre Because of these difficulties the task of translating traditional Chinese drama must go far beyond the conventional literary treatment and evoke the entire world of stagecraft and directing Longing for Worldly Pleasures Ssu Fan is a lyric monologue in which a young Buddhist laments the waning of her youth in the seclusion of the convent The brief piece involves a complexity of mood which makes it an actor's tour de force undertaken only by the most highly skilled performers Fifteen Strings of Cash Shih

Wu Kuan a much longer play is a comic murder mystery satirizing bureaucratic ineptitude in the administration of justice The comic lead role of Lou the Rat is a virtuoso part which illustrates the intricate mimetic art of the traditional comic actor and was the play's main appeal to Chinese audiences      Performance Across Chinese Borders Wei Zhang, 2024-12-31 This book examines the dynamic intermingling of Asian performance of theatre and dance across the borders of the ancient Silk Road which connected China with cultures and countries throughout Asia and beyond Revealing the dynamic interweaving of cultures between China and its neighbors from the time of the ancient Silk Road to modern times the book demonstrates how such interweaving has been reflected and embodied in the performance forms and genres of East South and Southeast Asia Through individual explorations of the artistic expressions in these Asian countries the book reveals the transformative impact of the dissemination and interfusion of religion beliefs and cultural practices on the development of performance arts genres in Asia The book effectively displays how this robust interfusion across borders left a profound and indelible imprint on the various forms of artistic expression Representing a succinct analysis of the thousands of years of intercultural cross fertilization and diffusion across borders of the performing arts in Asia this book makes an important contribution to transcultural studies in theatre dance performance literature      Contemporary Plays by African American Women

Sandra Adell, 2015-12-15 African American women have increasingly begun to see their plays performed from regional stages to Broadway Yet many of these artists still struggle to gain attention In this volume Sandra Adell draws from the vital wellspring of works created by African American women in the twenty first century to present ten plays by both prominent and up and coming writers Taken together the selections portray how these women engage with history as they delve into and shake up issues of gender and class to craft compelling stories of African American life Gliding from gritty urbanism to rural landscapes these works expand boundaries and boldly disrupt modes of theatrical representation Selections Blue Door by Tanya Barfield Levee James by S M Shephard Massat Hoodoo Love by Katori Hall Carnaval by Nikkole Salter Single Black Female by Lisa B Thompson Fabulation or The Re Education of Undine by Lynn Nottage BlackTop Sky by Christina Anderson Voyeurs de Venus by Lydia Diamond Fedra by J Nicole Brooks and Uppa Creek A Modern Anachronistic Parody in the Minstrel Tradition by Keli Garrett      Told in a Chinese Garden, and Four Other Fantastic Plays for Out-doors Or In-doors

Constance Grenelle Wilcox, 1920      Teaching Chinese in the Anglophone World Danping Wang, Martin East, 2023-07-30 This volume offers a comprehensive overview of Chinese language teaching in New Zealand in light of the declining interest in foreign language learning in Anglophone countries While existing scholarly works have discussed Chinese language education in other Anglophone countries this book is the first to provide an in depth examination of the landscape of Chinese language teaching in contemporary multicultural New Zealand featuring insights from leading experts The book consists of 21 chapters written by 29 contributors including research students experienced teachers and leading scholars in every educational sector from preschool to university and from mainstream education to community schools As the first volume to focus on this subject the book provides both historical perspectives and multilevel analyses of critical milestones based on the latest data policy changes and politico economic conditions shaping the future direction of Chinese language education in New Zealand Its purpose is to offer insights and an overview of the New Zealand case that can help policymakers programme leaders researchers teachers and learners in the Anglophone world and beyond to better respond to the rapidly changing and challenging environments they face In addition to the Foreword by Patricia Duff and the Epilogue the book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in Chinese language education in New Zealand and serves as a catalyst for further discussion and research on this topic Chapters Teaching Chinese in the Anglophone World An Overview of the New Zealand Case Chinese as a Heritage Language in New Zealand A Historical Overview and The Teaching of Mandarin Chinese in New Zealand s Schools Where Have We Come From Where Are We Now Where Are We Going are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2012 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2007 Educational Practices in China, Korea, and the United States Chuang Wang,Lan Kolano,Do-Hong Kim,2020-03-01 This book is written by a diverse cohort of both of American educators including professors teachers school counselors and school administrators from pre K to college levels Most of the contributors come from disciplinary areas of English as a second language and school administration With the pressure of Common Core State Standards Initiative American educators are now shifting their focus to standards based instruction Meanwhile Chinese educators are moving away from national standards and developing state level curriculum and instruction to meet specific needs of the students in local provinces There is also a debate about whether or not to use the National College Entrance Examination as the only test for college admission Some provinces e g Zhejiang and Hubei are administering their own college entrance examinations The book outlines the sociocultural roots of education in the three countries linking the tradition and philosophical orientations to each country s own history of education Furthermore the book compares and contrasts the curriculum especially the teaching of English as a second foreign language in three countries This book examines the stress of students physical education various pedagogical styles in foreign language education as well as instructional texts and cross cultural dialogue between teachers Additionally the book explores factors that influence parent s involvement and women s educational and career aspirations Lastly the book presents modern technologies such as smart learning technologies and online learning platforms not only to facilitate future educational systems but also to promote international exchanges The chapters of the book are thematically diverse but they help to provide inspirations for educators both in American and Asian countries The findings offer alternative practical lenses for educational community to seek for some middle ground between Chinese South Korea and American education The intended audience for this book is graduate students teachers administrators and professionals in education The Chinese Students' Monthly ,1927 African Transnational Mobility in China Roberto

Castillo,2020-12-29 Considering the African presence in China from an ethnographic and cultural studies perspective this book offers a new way to theorise contemporary and future forms of transnational mobilities while expanding our understandings around the transformations happening in both China and Africa The author develops an original argument and new theoretical insights about the significance of the African presence in Guangzhou and presents an invaluable case study for understanding particular modes of transnational mobility More broadly it challenges forms of re presenting and producing knowledge about subjects on the move and it transforms existing theorisations and critical understandings of mobility and its shaping power Through an ethnographic approach the book brings us closer to a number of practices features and objects that while characterising the lives of Africans in Guangzhou are also evidence of the interplay between individual aspirations and the structural constraints embedded in contemporary regimes of transnational mobility Raising critical questions about ways of un belonging in the precarious settings of neoliberal modernity and the future of African mobilities this book will be of interest to scholars of transnational African and Chinese Studies
