IN AMAZING WAYS Erin believed she'd discovered the magic formula for finding her Prince Charming trying out her favorite romantic comedies in real life. It turns out that she was wrong at least until now because let's not forget a magic formula doesn't always work the first time. She just has to wave her magic wand and start again. Sleepless in Seattle, Romancing the Stone, Notting Hill, A Lot Like Love—one of these films is bound to bring her happiness. Especially as this time she's decided to put all the odds in her favor. First session: The Devil Wears Prada. A change of style will help her find her smile again and take part in new adventures. Besides, aren't all romantic comedies required to have a happy ending? Why not hers?

EXCERPT 1 As I know that Matt is tired I find an excuse to leave without having dessert. During the trip back I can't stop myself from mentioning, "For a second there I thought you weren't very talkative because you had a fight with Moira. Or rather you hoped that I had a fight with Moira." What? Not at all. I protest. I have no problem with her. He turns and touches my nose. No, it hasn't grown, and to think that I counted on the story of Pinocchio being real. I can't help but laugh. OK, I can't pretend that she holds a special place in my heart, but to be fair, I've only seen her once. I imagine that she dethroned Vanessa on the list of your enemies, he jokes. In my defense, she's the one who started looking me up and down coldly. While, of course, you're purely innocent. Matt, I didn't do anything to provoke her. Maybe you can explain to me why she doesn't like me. I'd rather not get into that kind of discussion.

The book is aimed at women, men, and couples who want to spice up their sex life or transcend inhibitions.
