Practicing Restorative Justice is to show readers the effectiveness of restorative justice practices in addressing a number of issues that impact Black and brown students. It takes a deep dive into the School to Prison Pipeline in which failed education policies push students of color out of schools and into the penal system, dooming them for life. Other topics include policing in schools, systemic racism's impact on classrooms and learners at all grade levels, and ways in which to decolonize the education system. The book provides classroom instructors, college of education faculty, and preservice teachers the concrete means to improve the learning experience of students of color in our public education system.

Prophecies, Visions, Occurrences, and Dreams Raymond Aguilera, 2000-06-15. Prophecies, Visions, Occurrences, and Dreams is an apocalyptic book. Since 1990, Raymond Aguilera began to receive prophecies, visions, and warnings from God about the end of our world as we know it. These messages range from abortion to the New Age movement to Pastors who have misled the flock. They reveal things to come, things that now are, and things that should not be. From hope to love to doom to a new beginning, herein lies a broad range of insight from a whole new perspective. The prophecies are simple and straight forward, written from a first-hand perspective. They fly in the face of orthodox tradition and are a thorn in the side to everyone who has already made up his mind and heart on how the end is to come and who God is. This has the potential of being one of the most controversial books of the year.
