Browning's Lyrics Eleanor Cook, 1974-12-15 Browning's lyrics are favourite choices for anthologies but are rarely examined closely This is the first full length study of the lyrics and includes detailed analyses of such well known poems as Love Among the Ruins Two in the Campagna A Serenade at the Villa A Toccata of Galuppi's By the Fireside and James Lee's Wife Eleanor Cook explores Browning's use of repeated images and themes in the lyrics examines these patterns in other poems and in his letters and analyses their growth and change in all his work She demonstrates how the lyrics may be linked with Browning's other work and shows something of his essential artistic unity His imaginary is found to be more consistent and complex than is usually assumed Students of Browning will find this work stimulating and instructive while lovers of Browning will read it with pure pleasure The reader will return to many of the poems with a richer sense of their continuing vitality In an earlier form this study was awarded the first A S P Woodhouse Prize by the University of Toronto

Mixtec Transnational Identity Laura Velasco Ortiz, 2022-09-13 As Mexican migrants have found new lives in the United States the appearance of migrant organizations reflects the revitalization of ancestral community life One example the Binational Oaxacan Indigenous Front includes participants from cities along the border and represents diverse organizations of indigenous migrants from Oaxaca Its creation reflects the vast changes that have taken place in migrants lives in less than thirty years Mixtec Transnational Identity is the first book to describe in detail the emergence of a wide range of transnational indigenous organizations and communities in the greater Mexico U S border region It documents and analyzes the construction of novel identities formed within transnational contexts that may not conform to identities in either the sending or receiving societies Laura Velasco Ortiz investigates groups located on both sides of the border that have maintained strong links with towns and villages in the Mixteca region of Oaxaca in order to understand how this transformation came about Through a combination of survey ethnography and biography she examines the formation of ethnic identity under the conditions of international migration giving special attention to the emergence of organizations and their leaders as collective and individual ethnic agents of change Velasco Ortiz reconstructs the Mixtec experience through three lines of analysis the formation of organizations beyond the confines of home communities the emergence of indigenous migrant leaders and the shaping of ethnic consciousness that assimilates the experiences of a community straddling the border Her research brings to light the way in which the dispersion of members of different communities is offset by the formation of migrant networks with family and community ties while the politicization of these networks enables the formation of both hometown associations and transnational pan ethnic organizations An important focus of her analysis is gender differentiation within the ethnic community There has been little research into the relationship between the process of collective agency and the reconstitution of the migrants ethnic identity Mixtec Transnational Identity should stimulate further study of Latino migration to the U S border region and its consequences on ethnic identity
