Getting Tough Is Not Enough:

Getting Tough Is Not Enough Peterkin Imprints,1997 Getting In Is Not Enough Colette Morrow,Terri Ann Fredrick,2012-12 This anthology examines women s paid work in terms of both access to the economic system and the broader agenda of achieving feminist social change worldwide Generations of feminists have linked women s empowerment autonomy and oppression to issues involving work Most conflated women s economic and political clout with gender equity arguing that increasing women s access to and leadership in the public workplace is crucial to the success of the feminist project But recent debates about women s continued inability to gain equality in the workplace raise the need for new approaches to teaching about gender and employment Getting In Is Not Enough responds to the challenge Drawn from almost two decades of the Feminist Formations journal the essays in this book critically examine assumptions about access and the ways in which women affect and are affected by work in three major spheres economic social and political Getting In Is Not Enough focuses on how access based feminism a term developed by Colette Morrow and Terri Ann Fredrick has both failed and succeeded in achieving equity and justice for women and looks at how transnational feminism has addressed these concerns using a global fundamentally transformative approach The contributors consider a wide range of issues from an examination of the male female wage gap that starts when girls are teenagers to policewomen in Persian Gulf countries to Latinas politics to Aboriginal health care workers to secretarial work and to feminist activism in Cuban hip hop When Getting Along Is Not Enough Maureen Walker,2019 Now more than ever race has become a morphing relational dynamic that has less to do with the demographic census box we check and more with how we make sense of our lives who we are and who we can become in relationships with others Using anecdotes from her practice as a licensed psychologist and as an African American growing up in the South Walker provides a way for educators and social service professionals to enter into cross racial discussions about race and race relations She identifies three essential relational skills for personal transformation and cultural healing that are the foundations for repairing the damage wrought by racism While Walker does not sugarcoat the destructive history of racism that we all inherit in the United States the book s vision is ultimately affirming empowering hopeful and inclusive about the individual and collective power to heal our divisions and disconnections Book Features Presents a new way of understanding race as a relational dynamic and racism as a symptom of disconnection Synthesizes for the first time two important systems of thought relational cultural theory and race social identity theory Includes Pause to Reflect exercises designed to stimulate group conversations in book clubs social justice groups staff development classrooms and workplace training Offers practical everyday solutions for people of different races to better understand and accept one another Nice Is Not Enough C. J. Pascoe,2023-08-15 This provocative story of contemporary high school argues that a shallow culture of kindness can do more lasting harm than good Based on two years of research Nice Is Not Enough shares striking dispatches from one high school s regime of kindness to underline how the culture operates as a Band Aid on persistent inequalities Through incisive storytelling and thoughtful engagement with students this brilliant study by C J Pascoe exposes uncomfortable truths about American politics and our reliance on individual solutions instead of profound systemic change Nice Is Not Enough brings readers into American High a middle and working class high school characterized by acceptance connection and kindness a place where a prominent sign states there is no room for hate Here inequality is narrowly understood as a problem of individual merit meanness effort or emotion rather than a structural issue requiring deeper intervention Surface level sensitivity allows American High to avoid political topics related to social inequality based on race sex gender or class Being nice to each other Pascoe reveals does not serve these students or solve the broader issues we face however a true politics of care just might
