Light And Images Elements Of Contemplation:

The Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2010-08-01 In popular usage mysticism typically refers to New Age or Eastern forms of spirituality. However, the mystical tradition is also an important component of the Christian tradition. At its heart and much like its expression in other faith traditions, Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation, contemplation, worship, philosophy, the quest for personal enlightenment, and the experience of Divine presence. This volume is a comprehensive introduction and guide to Christian mysticism. It is a big book about a big possibility, the hope of achieving real blissful experiential union with God. Among the topics covered here are a general introduction to mysticism, the Bible and mysticism, the history and types of Christian mysticism, biographical sketches of leading Christian mystics, and practical instructions about practicing mysticism today. This is a breathtaking work that explores a form of spirituality that has changed lives over the course of 2,000 years. Learning about Christian mysticism and how it has been articulated through the centuries will prove inspirational for today's seekers regardless of the faith tradition. The mystic is not a special kind of person; every person is a special kind of mystic. William McNamara

Our Task Hans Urs von Balthasar, 2012-09-20 This book describes the common task which Balthasar and Adrienne von Speyr undertook: the founding of a secular institute, The Community of St John. He also describes their common theological work and explains the theology and role of secular institutes.

Kneeling Theology Anton Strukelj, 2023-01-31 Anton Strukelj, in this English edition of his book Kneeling Theology, which was published in German, Italian, Polish, Russian, and Slovenian, based his theme on the concept first developed by Hans Urs von Balthasar. This Swiss intellectual is considered one of the most important theologians of the 20th century. Strukelj sees as his task, through a synthetic survey of questions, to seek from his subjects a holistic perspective regarding the role of the theologian without doing a critical analysis of all their work. Kneeling Theology analyzes the process and its consequences that gave rise to the religious and cultural developments of the past and the present. It is his thesis that the essence of theology should flow from holiness. He relies for his evidence on the life and work of Hans Urs von Balthasar, which included the insights of Adrienne von Speyr, physician and mystic; Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, Pope Benedict XVI; the Slovenian theologian Anton Strelc, now servant of God; and Anton Vovk, former Archbishop of Ljubljana, fearless witness of Christ and his Church, also servant of God. Strukelj's purpose with this book is to point out that Catholic theology is best served not only by competent research and a thorough knowledge of Church tradition, but by theologians who approach their work prayerfully and on their knees. The rich theological and pastoral heritage that has been bequeathed to us by a small group of special people in this book has come about because of their scholarship and their holiness. They have each in their own way demonstrated what it means to do theology on their knees, and they have shared their scholarship and insights with us.

Heaven Opens Matthew Lewis Sutton, 2014 Adrienne von Speyr was one of the most important mystical theologians of the last century. However, her work has been eclipsed in many ways by her personal connection to Hans Urs von Balthasar.

Heaven Opens provides one of the first comprehensive accounts of von Speyr's theology. Matthew Lewis Sutton argues that the eternal immanent relations of the Triune God ground the mystical theological vision of von Speyr. Here von Speyr's work is for the first time given an independent hearing, expositing its content, features and connections and assessing its contribution to contemporary Catholic theology.

Light and Images Adrienne von Speyr, 2004. One of Adrienne von Speyr's most cherished concerns was to rekindle Christians' desire for contemplation and thus to renew the Church's prayer. Light and Images is one of the most important of her works on the subject. She sets forth the deepest theological foundations of contemplative prayer according to the reciprocal relationship between light and images. Like the simple images that open up infinite depths to the eye of faith, this little book contains an overwhelming wealth of insight into contemplation. One comes away from it with a vastly transformed understanding of the nature of prayer and an appreciation for its irreplaceable role in Christian life. With its disarmingly simple language, Light and Images is immediately accessible and yet the new perspectives it offers on prayer surprise and challenge at every turn. The book is therefore both an incomparable introduction for those who wish to learn what it means to pray and excellent spiritual reading for those seeking to draw more deeply from the Church's great treasury of prayer.

The Secrets of Buddhist Meditation Eric M. Greene, 2021-01-31. In the early 400s numerous Indian and Central Asian Buddhist meditation masters, chanshi, traveled to China where they established the first enduring traditions of Buddhist meditation practice in East Asia. The forms of contemplative practice that these missionaries brought with them and which their Chinese students further developed remained for several centuries the basic understanding of meditation in China. Although modern scholars and readers have long been familiar with the approaches to meditation of the Chan/Zen School that later became so popular throughout East Asia, these earlier and in some ways more pervasive forms of practice have long been overlooked or ignored. This volume presents a comprehensive study of the content and historical formation as well as complete English translations of two of the most influential manuals in which these approaches to Buddhist meditation are discussed: the Scripture on the Secret Essential Methods of Chan (Chan Essentials) and the Secret Methods for Curing Chan Sickness (Methods for Curing). Translated here into English for the first time, these documents reveal a distinctly visionary form of Buddhist meditation whose goal is the acquisition of concrete symbolic visions attesting to the practitioner's purity and progress toward liberation. Both texts are apocryphal scriptures. Taking the form of Indian Buddhist sutras translated into Chinese, they were in fact new compositions written or at least assembled in China in the first half of the fifth century. Though written in China, their historical significance extends beyond the East Asian context as they are among the earliest written sources anywhere to record certain kinds of information about Buddhist meditation that hitherto had been the preserve of oral tradition and personal initiation. To this extent they indeed divulge as their titles claim the secrets of Buddhist meditation. Through them we witness a culture of Buddhist meditation that has remained largely unknown but which for many centuries was widely shared across North India, Central Asia, and Ethical Materialities in Art and Moving Images Silke Panse,2024-12-26 Starting from the premise that after modernism and postmodernism in the Anthropocene an artwork cannot rest upon its separation from the planet this volume develops new ethical practice and thought with respect to art philosophy and moving images Practitioners and theorists examine how the relations between the ethical and the material figure in a context in which a dearth of ethical practice and thought has caused the materialities of the Anthropocene and the climate catastrophe Ethics are generally regarded as constituted through immaterial relations guided by moral imperatives By contrast this volume argues that the singular ethicalities that are manifested in a work cannot be captured by abstract ethics The explorations of the ethical here are not prescriptive but creative Through artistic and philosophical thought and practice the contributions move beyond the division between an active practice of ethics and a contemplative theory of aesthetics They ask what ethicalities and materialities are at play in the relations between the artist the art their worlds and the planet after new materialism and posthumanism Rather than transcending the ethical through the material or the material through the ethical the contributions articulate the singular relations between them and consider the inter and intra active ethical and material relations of art and images in biodiverse environments They suggest that to bring out the ethical dimensions of the material and the material dimension of the ethical without identifying one with the other is a responsibility of art and images The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles Herbermann,1910 The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,1913 The Manual of Light & The Manual of the Path to Higher Knowledge Ven.
