Jonathan Fraser Light, 2016-03-25 More than any other sport baseball has developed its own niche in America's culture and psyche Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game while others wax poetic about its players and plays Many trace the beginnings of the civil rights movement in part to the Major League's decision to integrate and the words and phrases of the game for example pinch hitter and out in left field have become common in our everyday language From AARON HENRY onward this book covers all of what might be called the cultural aspects of baseball as opposed to the number rich statistical information so widely available elsewhere Biographical sketches of all Hall of Fame players owners executives and umpires as well as many of the sportswriters and broadcasters who have won the Spink and Frick awards join entries for teams owners commissioners and league presidents Advertising agents drafts illegal substances minor leagues oldest players perfect games retired uniform numbers superstitions tripleheaders and youngest players are among the thousands of entries herein Most entries open with a topical quote and conclude with a brief bibliography of sources for further research The whole work is exhaustively indexed and includes 119 photographs Len Jenkin's

Theatre Robert J. Andreach, 2011 Early in his career Len Jenkin identified two qualities that theatre should have wonder and heart Imagination creates wonder by transforming nature to suggest more than nature Love engages the heart on the quest to experience the wonder for though Jenkin is an experimental playwright his plays are not abstruse symbols They are tales that take salesmen and actresses historical figures and fictional characters through a Stein landscape and a Kafka story pop culture and recreated scenes from the Bible and The Canterbury Tales The Aeneid and Headlong Hall to an amusement park ride and a penal colony a flophouse and a garden Bodacious verbal and visual images build in power until they soar as pilgrims tell tales to pass the night while waiting to cross the river Hawthorne Sophie and Melville on the beach hear the ever encroaching kraken and Margo Veil essays the roles that all questing mortals play in life Planet 9 - The Dipole
