Tamar Kamionkowski,2003-06-01 This book is about both the fear of gender reversal and its expression in the prophet Ezekiel's reworking of the marital metaphor Kamionkowski argues that the abomination of wife Jerusalem is that she is attempting to pass for a male thereby crossing gender boundaries and upsetting the world order This story is therefore one of confused gender scripts ensuing chaos and a re ordering through the reinforcement of these strictly defined prescriptions of gendered behaviour Using socio historical evidence and the existence of the literary motif of men turning into women as a framework this book argues that Ezekiel 16 in particular reflects the gender chaos which arises as an aftermath of social and theological crises Parables for Preachers Barbara E. W. Robinson,2016-11-04 Engage compelling arguments that challenge prominent positions in Pauline studies In this innovative book William E W Robinson takes the reader on a journey through Romans 8 1 17 using Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Conceptual Integration Theory Robinson delineates the underlying cognitive metaphors their structure their function what they mean and how Paul's audiences then and now are able to comprehend their meaning He examines each metaphor in the light of relevant aspects of the Greco Roman world and Paul s Jewish background Robinson contends that Paul portrays the Spirit as the principal agent in the religious ethical life of believers At the same time his analysis demonstrates that the conceptual metaphors in Romans 8 1 17 convey the integral role of believers in ethical conduct In the process he addresses thorny theological issues such as whether Spirit and flesh signal an internal battle within believers or two conflicting ways of life Finally Robinson shows how this study is relevant to related Pauline passages and challenges scholars to incorporate these methods into their own investigation of biblical texts Features Sustained argument that sheds new light on how Paul communicates with his audiences Substantial contribution to current debates about central theological concepts Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Conceptual Integration Theory applied to the metaphors in Romans 8 1 17

Figurative Language in Biblical Prose Narrative Andrea Weiss,2006-03-01 This study applies several linguistic approaches to the book of Samuel in order to investigate the defining features of metaphor and the way metaphor and other forms of figurative language operate in biblical narrative The book begins with an exploration of how to identify and interpret the metaphors in 1 Samuel 25 Next the metaphors in 2 Samuel 16 16 17 14 are compared with other tropes primarily metonymy and simile Then the notion of dead metaphors is challenged while examining the figurative language in 1 Samuel 24 An in depth analysis of the figurative language in these texts results in a better understanding of the mechanics of metaphor and a richer more nuanced reading of these stories their characters and language

The Apocalypse of Isaiah Metaphorically Speaking Brian Doyle,2000 The analysis of metaphors constitutes an ideal point of entry into the exegesis of Biblical Hebrew poetic texts because it forces the exegete to examine the said text from a variety of perspectives How can one discern the presence of metaphorical speech What are the various types of metaphorical speech available to and employed by the biblical poet How does the structure of a piece of Hebrew poetry carry its metaphorical dimensions How did the biblical poet make use of the various types of metaphor and to what end Can we ultimately gain access to the poet s meaning The present study endeavours to provide at least a partial answer to these questions In maintaining focus on the biblical text moreover the author hopes to anchor some of the abstractions of metaphorical theory with chosen examples taken from the so called Apocalypse of Isaiah The Hebrew prophets constitute fertile ground in their use of metaphorical language for speaking the unspeakable especially concerning the relationship between the people and God
