

LIKUTEY MOHARAN

"The Collected Teachings of Morena HaRav Nachman" is the most important collection of Torah teachings of the outstanding Chassidic luminary, Rebbe Nachman of Breslov (1772-1810). It contains all his major Torah discourses given over the last eight years of his life together with many shorter lessons, transcribed and edited by his closest student, Reb Natan.

Rebbe Nachman himself described Likutey Moharan as a work "for the great and small alike." The Breslov Research Institute, which is devoted to making Rebbe Nachman's teachings available in English, Modern Hebrew, Spanish, Russian, French and the other major languages spoken by contemporary world Jewry, presents the first ever translation of Likutey Moharan into English.

The translation itself is clear and painstakingly faithful to the original, and is accompanied by facing punctuated Hebrew text, full source references, and an extensive commentary explaining the underlying ideas and broader meaning of the text.

A work throwing light on the deepest concepts of the Torah, revealed and mystical, Likutey Moharan guides the contemporary spiritual seeker around the confusions and deceptions of the modern world to faith, truth and devotion to God.
