Limited Partnership Building A Russian U S Security Community:

The Limited Partnership James E. Goodby, Benoit Morel, 1993 This book presents a detailed assessment of the conditions for security relations between Washington and Moscow in the post cold war era focusing on the scope for future co operative management of common security Three main areas provide the context for a thematically and theoretically varied discussion the security and foreign policy implications of the transition from the Soviet to a Russian Commonwealth regime military power and international stability after the cold war and the political military and technological requirements for a new security relationship

The US-Japan Security Community Hidekazu Sakai, 2018-08-14 Drawing on the work of Karl W Deutsch this book argues that the United States and Japan have formed their own security community based on a sense of collective identity In so doing it provides a new theoretical outlook on co operation between the United States and Japan offering a fresh understanding of their bilateral relationship as one that goes beyond a mere military alliance or free trade partnership Taking an empirical approach Sakai analyzes three key case studies the Persian Gulf War of 1990 1 the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 and the Tohoku Earthquake and Tsunami of 2011 He examines how the United States and Japan interacted with one another in their discourses and behaviors in these three instances and thus demonstrates the existence of a collective identity between the two nations

The Nebi Yearbook 1998 P. Joenniemi,Lars Hedegaard,A. Östhol,Bjarne Lindström,K. Peschel,C.-E. Stalvant,2012-12-06 Thorvald Stoltenberg Ambassador Chairman of the Editorial Advisory Board Most of us have been overwhelmed by the speed and extent of the changes that have been taking place in Europe since the late 1980s Over the span of a few years we have witnessed the collapse of the Soviet Union and the unification of Ger many This process has had far reaching implications for Northern Europe the Baltic states have attained independence and with the establishment of the Baltic Sea regional co operation and the Barents co operation a new type of East West relations has come into being The process of change continues Its latest manifestation is the agreement between Russia and NATO and NATO and EU enlargement is expected to take place over the next few years With such far reaching transformations we need to reflect on what is hap pening We need a more coherent picture of the new situation in Northern Europe and of where we are heading This Yearbook is an attempt to fulfil this need I would like to thank the editors for taking this initiative which has been long awaited by those of us who have been actively interested in the improved relations between the former East and the old West that have been made possible by the end of the Cold War and particularly in the new opportunities for cross border co operation and integra tion in the North European and Baltic space

The International Politics of Russia and the Successor States Mark Webber,1996 This textbook examines the external relations of the fifteen new states which emerged from the ashes of the Soviet Union in 1991 Mark Webber examines the consequences of the Soviet collapse and the emergence of a new system of international relations embracing Russia and the other former Soviet republics The author explores both relations between the new states themselves and between these states and the wider world He pinpoints the daunting challenges facing the new states the invention of foreign policy orientations the management of the Red Army's material legacy including nuclear weapons the resolution of regional conflicts and the need for economic revival Two key themes emerge the reassertion of national identities and the special position of Russia which has assumed to some extent the rights and the obligations of the Soviet Union on the world stage whilst having to tackle the chaos of local wars and internal economic collapse

Explaining Russian Foreign Policy Behavior Alexander Sergunin, 2016-03-22 This book aims to explain the reasons behind Russia's international conduct in the post-Soviet era examining Russian foreign policy discourse with a particular focus on the major foreign policy schools of Atlanticism Eurasianism derzhavniki realpolitik geopolitics neo-Marxism radical nationalism and post-positivism The Russian post-Soviet threat perceptions and national security doctrines are studied The author critically assesses the evolution of Russian foreign policy decision making over the last 25 years and analyzes the roles of various governmental agencies interest groups and subnational actors Concluding that a foreign policy consensus is gradually emerging in contemporary Russia Sergunin argues that the Russian foreign policy discourse aims not only at the formulation of an international strategy but also at the search for a new national identity Alexander Sergunin argues that Russia's current domestic situation defined by numerous socio-economic inter-ethnic demographic environmental and other problems dictates the need to abandon superpower ambitions and to rather set modest foreign policy goals

The Kaliningrad Challenge Hanne-Margret Birckenbach, 2003 The Kaliningradskaya Oblast Russia's Baltic enclave which soon will turn into an island amid the enlarged EU and NATO constitutes a twofold challenge to European politics Due to its economic social historical geographical strategic and cultural peculiarities the detached region may become a source of instability However due to the same peculiarities the region also bears the potential to serve as a pilot region for an EU-Russian partnership To meet the latter perspective all actors concerned need to engage in a dialogue-based coordinated and problem-solving approach This study provides recommendations to a wide range of actors on how to approach the Kaliningrad challenge in a proactive manner It presents a policy paper drafted by a group of Kaliningrad experts from eight countries and is complemented by fourteen issue-oriented chapters which provide in-depth reasoning on the suggestions made by the group Hanne Margret Birckenbach is professor of political sciences at the University of Giessen Germany Christian Wellmann is deputy director of SHIP The Schleswig-Holstein Institute for Peace Research Germany U.S.
