Experimental schools in England Jan 1926      Gender and Power in the Plays of Harold Pinter Victor L. Cahn,2011-12-20

During the past century artists have been preoccupied with the search for meaning in a fragmented world In this book Victor L Cahn suggests that the plays of Harold Pinter dramatize how such a search leads characters to try to establish security through control of territory and people The resulting conflict often manifests itself in a gender battle in which men dominate the physical arena and women the emotional The innate tension between the sexes is both comic and unnerving but also reflects humanity s eternal quest for meaning and identity      School Progress ,1972      Top of the News ,1970      Catalog
