How To Write A Horror Movie Neal Bell, 2020-03-20 How to Write a Horror Movie is a close look at an always popular but often disrespected genre It focuses on the screenplay and acts as a guide to bringing scary ideas to cinematic life using examples from great and some not so great horror movies Author Neal Bell examines how the basic tools of the scriptwriter's trade including structure dialogue humor mood characters and pace can work together to embody personal fears that will resonate strongly on screen Screenplay examples include classic works such as 1943's I Walked With A Zombie and recent terrifying films that have given the genre renewed attention like writer director Jordan Peele's critically acclaimed and financially successful Get Out Since fear is universal the book considers films from around the world including the found footage REC from Spain 2007 the Swedish vampire movie Let The Right One In 2008 and the Persian language film Under The Shadow 2016 The book provides insights into the economics of horror movie making and the possible future of this versatile genre It is the ideal text for screenwriting students exploring genre and horror and aspiring scriptwriters who have an interest in horror screenplays

Dig Phil Ford, 2013-07-16 Hipness has been an indelible part of America's intellectual and cultural landscape since the 1940s But the question What is hip remains a kind of cultural koan equally intriguing and elusive In Dig Phil Ford argues that while hipsters have always used clothing hairstyle gesture and slang to mark their distance from consensus culture music has consistently been the primary means of resistance the royal road to hip Hipness suggests a particular kind of alienation from society alienation due not to any specific political wrong but to something more radical a clash of perception and consciousness From the vantage of hipness the dominant culture constitutes a system bent on excluding creativity self awareness and self expression The hipster's project is thus to define himself against this system to resist being stamped in its uniform squarish mold Ford explores radio shows films novels poems essays jokes and political manifestos but argues that music more than any other form of expression has shaped the alienated hipster's identity Indeed for many avant garde subcultures music is their raison d'être Hip intellectuals conceived of sound itself as a way of challenging meaning that which is cognitive and abstract timeless and placeless with experience that which is embodied concrete and anchored in place and time Through Charlie Parker's Ornithology Ken Nordine's Sound Museum Bob Dylan's Ballad of a Thin Man and a range of other illuminating examples Ford shows why and how music came to be at the center of hipness Shedding new light on an enigmatic concept Dig is essential reading for students and scholars of popular music and culture as well as anyone fascinated by the counterculture movement of the mid twentieth century Publication of this book was supported by the AMS 75 PAYS Endowment of the American Musicological Society funded in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation

Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner, John Cline, 2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics

Gendered Memories Xian Wang, 2025-02-04 Gendered Memories An Imaginary Museum for Ding Ling and Chinese Female Revolutionary Martyrs takes readers on a journey through the lives and legacies of Chinese female revolutionary martyrs revealing how their sacrifices have been remembered commemorated and manipulated throughout history This innovative book blends historical narratives with personal narratives creating an imaginary museum where the stories of these women are brought to life Author Xian Wang employs this imaginary museum to create a conceptual space mirroring an actual museum that juxtaposes historical narratives with counter memories of Chinese female revolutionaries such as the prominent writer Ding Ling Exploring Ding's experiences with martyrdom and the commemoration of female revolutionary martyrs associated with her the book provides a compelling argument that female revolutionary martyrdom reinforces rather than rejects the traditional concept of female chastity martyrdom Narratives that challenge established gender norms particularly those surrounding female chastity have often been silenced or overlooked in the collective memory of these female revolutionary martyrs By delving into these counter memories Wang provides fresh insights into gendered violence memories and politics in modern Chinese literature and culture Legacies of Romanticism Carmen Casaloggi, Paul March-Russell, 2013-03-05 This book visits the Romantic legacy that was central to the development of literature and culture from the 1830s onward Although critical accounts have examined aspects of this long history of indebtedness this is the first study to survey both Nineteenth and Twentieth century culture The authors consider the changing notion of Romanticism looking at the diversity of its writers the applicability of the term and the ways in which Romanticism has been reconstituted The chapters cover relevant historical periods and literary trends including the Romantic Gothic the Victorian era and Modernism as part of a dialectical response to the Romantic legacy Contributors also examine how Romanticism has been reconstituted within postmodern and postcolonial literature as both a reassessment of the Modernist critique and of the imperial contexts that have throughout this time frame underpinned the Romantic legacy bringing into focus the contemporaneity of Romanticism and its political legacy This collection reveals the diversity and continuing relevance of the genre in new and exciting ways offering insights into writers such as Browning Ruskin Pater Wilde Lewis MacNeice and Auster This Is the Rat Speaking Todd M. Mealy, 2017-03-24 Author of Alienated American A Biography of William Howard Day 1825-1900 Legendary Locals of Harrisburg and Biography of an Antislavery City Antislavery Advocates Abolitionists and Underground Railroad Activists The demise of the so called Jim Crow laws in 1964 and 1965 and the victory of the civil rights movement rang hollow in the ears of most African Americans While segregation was practiced in many places of the South systemic forms of racism permeated northern society As distrust pervaded African American communities after 1966 the maligned Black Panther Party filled the void especially among baby boomers who moved the African American liberation movement further to the left During this difficult time when the country was torn apart by issues of race and poverty as well as the escalation of the Vietnam War unrest seemed to prevail at a myriad of colleges and universities across the United States where newly formed Afro American societies and black student unions pressed for pedagogical change suited to the liberation doctrine coming from the black left Spring 1969 was a particularly explosive semester as African American students occupied administrative buildings and common areas at both historically black and predominantly white colleges on the East Coast In This Is the Rat Speaking author Todd M Mealy reconstructs the May 22 1969 black student uprising at Franklin and Marshall College Using Lancaster County Pennsylvania and Franklin and Marshall College as his setting Mealy revisits the role and influence of the Black Panthers and delves into how activism for black studies curriculum emerged within the black power movement of the 1960s Based on oral history testimony investigation reports and judicial records Mealy provokes discussion from different perspectives Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016

Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature
