

Flying Fish

I HAVE lived in many half-worlds myself ... and so I know you.

I leaned at a deck rail watching a monotonous sea, the same circling birds and the same plunge of furrows carved by the plowing keel.

I leaned so . . . and you fluttered struggling between two waves in the air now . . . and then under the water and out again . . . a fish . . . a bird . . . a fin thing . . . a wing thing.

Child of water, child of air, fin thing and wing thing . . . I have lived in many half worlds myself . . . and so I know you.

Illustrated by E. H. The Longman edition is based on a comprehensive line by line analysis of the manuscripts so the text of the poem follows Byron's own voice pace and pauses rather than the grammatical punctuation and more cautious word choice inserted by his nineteenth century editors The Longman Don Juan has been annotated afresh allowing readers to see where Byron left open the choice of words or rhymes and demonstrating the extraordinary breadth and depth of his literary allusions topical and cultural references and socially coded jokes Textual annotation includes reception history extensive bibliographies and a detailed chronology situating Don Juan in the literary scientific dramatic political musical and social life of the early nineteenth century A detailed index to the poem and annotation provides an unparalleled resource for students and scholars
