Messages in the Mall Paul V. Marshall, 2008 For more than a decade the author has been writing a Saturday religion column syndicated in ten newspapers in the 14 counties of Pennsylvania that comprise the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem The 600 words or less in the subtitle comes from the rigorous discipline of writing to strict space requirements The intent of the columns is to engage the secular culture and to bring the church's message to it by commenting on the realities of the human condition and on issues of general interest This book is a compilation of many of the columns organized along thematic lines This book will be an ideal cross denominational trade book for individual reading or group use The short take format lends itself to episodic reading and will appeal to the individual daily prayer market Clergy will find the book an excellent source for sermon ideas

Touched by the Spirit Richard Jensen, 2000-10-03 I cannot imagine a book more needed by both pastors and laity right now As a counselor to a large number of charismatic students I have struggled to help them interpret their experiences within an historic biblical context I would like to be able to put Jensen's book in their hands and say Read this and then let's talk about it In fact I think this book would serve as an excellent tool for group study not only on campus but also in the parish
