From Newtons Sleep:

From Newton's Sleep Joseph Vining, 2023-11-14 What the presence of law tells us about our beliefs our language and the world around us In a strikingly original work intended not only for practicing lawyers but for anyone interested in the modern dilemma of the loss of meaning Joseph Vining invites us to reconsider law as a unique form of thought inseparably connected to everything in the world that makes up human identity Oliver Wendell Holmes asserted at the end of the nineteenth century that human law is ultimately a phenomenon in quantitative relations to its causes and effects and many have been left with an impression of law as a set of processes and rules Vining takes issue with this and with various reductionist attempts in scientific thought today to express the universe in a single mathematical description of forces as well as with post structuralist speculation that there are no valid truth claims and that human interaction can be reduced to analysis of power relationships Law he argues is an independent discourse not reducible to any other that exists only in human interaction and reflects continuing human worth Vining's search to reinstate the spiritual dimension in public discourse brings him head on with a wide array of powerful academic forces linguistics theory political science the new historicism and the traditional teaching of law This book consists of a collection of what Vining calls amplifications of the implied text of the law impressions commentaries vignettes poems and dialogues which illustrate aspects of conventional legal language and logic and the subjects legal practice regularly deals with such as promises death and crime Throughout we see that law reaches deeply into the way we know ourselves and other persons all of whom speak through law as law connects language to person and person to action The texts generated by legal method constitute the living record of social acquaintance and contest speaking across cultures and across centuries It is the close reading of legal texts and contexts Vining argues that provides the present source of the transcendental in modern secular life But unlike the other academic arts of interpretation law alone is directly connected with the most real the most particular and at the same time the most universal facts of social life From Newton's Sleep casts doubt on the certainties past and present and creates new grounds for skepticism and conviction The fragmentary form of the book mirrors its subject It is intended to be picked up and read as occasion allows by lawyers and anyone interested in law

Waking from Newton's Sleep James W. Jones, 2006-08-01 Must religion and science conflict Can a man of science find a spiritual path Meet Tim a chemical engineer who gradually finds his exclusive reliance on science being called into question by the events of his life by his dreams and by discussions with his coworker Matt and Matt's wife June Their conversations probe debate and explore whether science alone is sufficient to explain everything how science and religion might coexist whether science might lead toward a spiritual path and what sort of spirituality might be both life transforming and congruent with modern science Tim struggles resists and in spite of himself finds his viewpoint slowly changing Tim's story illustrates the finding of a spiritual path in a scientific age not through a drastic crisis but rather through a gradual process of becoming open to new experiences and rethinking old assumptions Newton's Sleep R. Tallis, 1995-09-27 Vast in its intellectual scope it should induce not so much sleep as controversy whether literary or scientific philosophical or political It skims the oceans of academe in a manner accessible to the educated public informed and cogently argued stylistically dense Sandra Goldbeck Wood British Medical Journal Tallis can and frequently does write extremely well He also writes with considerable passion Raymond Tallis is perhaps best seen as an exceptionally interesting and broad minded heir to Huxley preaching the cause of the Church Scientific Richard Webster Times Literary Supplement Reviews of Not Saussure and The Explicit Animal Not Saussure I greatly enjoyed it Bernard Bergonzi The Explicit Animal his books are genuine contributions to professional debate Stephen R L Clarke Times Literary Supplement Newton's Sleep examines the complementary roles of science and art in human life Science has been criticised for being at best useful but spiritually derelict and art for attempting to answer the spiritual needs of humankind while ignoring the material needs of millions who live in want Newton's Sleep deals with the charges that science is spiritually empty and that art fails in its civilising mission by relating these aspects of human culture to the physical and metaphysical hungers of an explicit animal who lives in both the Kingdom of Means and the Kingdom of Ends Tallis can and frequently does write extremely well He also writes with considerable passion Tallis is perhaps best seen as an exceptionally interesting and broad minded heir to Huxley preaching the cause of the Church Scientific Richard Webster Civilizing Authority Patrick M. Brennan, 2007-01-01 All phases of our social life depend on authority without it families schools corporations churches and civil governments would cease to exist and human life with them Civilizing Authority explores the essential commonalities of authority across the spectrum of human living it also probes the risk that authoritarian abuse will arrive to compensate for the elusiveness of genuine authority in a post Christian materialist world Constitutional Conscience H. Jefferson Powell, 2008-09-15 While many recent observers have accused American judges especially Supreme Court justices of being too driven by politics and ideology others have argued that judges are justified in using their positions to advance personal views Advocating a different approach one that eschews ideology but still values personal perspective H. Jefferson Powell makes a compelling case for the centrality of individual conscience in constitutional decision making Powell argues that almost every controversial decision has more than one constitutionally defensible resolution In such cases he goes on to contend the language and ideals of the Constitution require judges to decide in good faith exercising what Powell calls the constitutional virtues candor intellectual honesty humility about the limits of constitutional adjudication and willingness to admit that they do not have all the answers Constitutional Conscience concludes that the need for these qualities in judges as well as lawyers and citizens is implicit in our constitutional practices and that without them judicial review would forfeit both its own integrity and the credibility of the courts themselves Christianity, Ethics and the Law Zachary R. Calo, Joshua Neoh, A. Keith Thompson, 2022-12-30 This book examines how Christian love can inform legal thought The work introduces love as a way to advance the emergent conversation between constructive theology and jurisprudence that will also inform conversations in philosophy and political theory Love is the central category for Christian ethical understanding Yet the growing field of law and religion and relatedly law and theology rarely addresses how love can shape our understanding of law This reflects in part a common assumption that law and love stand in necessary tension Love applies to the private and the personal Law by contrast applies to the public and the political realms governed by power It is thus a mistake to envisage love as having anything but a negative relationship to law This conclusion continues to govern Christian understandings of the meaning and vocation of law The animating idea of this volume is that the concept of love can and should inform Christian legal thought The project approaches this task from the perspective of both historical and constructive theology Various contributions examine how such thinkers as Augustine Aquinas and Calvin utilised love in their legal thought These essays highlight often neglected aspects of the Christian tradition Other contributions examine Christian love in light of contemporary legal topics including civility forgiveness and secularism Love the book proposes not only matters for law but can transform the terms on which Christians understand and engage it The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of legal theory law and religion law and philosophy legal history theology and religious studies and political theory

Business Persons Eric W. Orts, 2013-08-29 Business firms are ubiquitous in modern society but an appreciation of how they are formed and for what purposes requires an understanding of their legal foundations This book provides a scholarly and yet accessible introduction to the legal framework of modern business enterprises It explains how the legal ideas allow for the construction and recognition of business firms as persons having rights and responsibilities It also shows how law sets the boundaries of firms Specific applications include contributions to debates about executive compensation and political free speech rights of corporations Anyone who wishes to have a deeper understanding of the nature of business firms and their role in modern society will benefit from reading this book

Significant Contribution to its Field The Algorithm of Creation is the last of Nicholas Hagger's quartet on the unity of the universe and humankind and follows The Universe and the Light 1993 The One and the Many 1999 and The New Philosophy of Universalism 2009 It offers an algebraic formula written out for him by Junzaburo Nishiwaki Japan's T S Eliot in Tokyo in October 1965 that sums up the wisdom of the East A A 0 Based on ancient Chinese thinking yin dark yang light the Tao it shows all opposites reconciled in the underlying unity of the One Void whose emptiness is also a fullness During a dinner at a conference of leading scientists at Jesus College Cambridge in September 1992 watched by Nobel physics prizewinner Roger Penrose Hagger reversed the formula to 0 A A when he wrote down the maths for his view of the origin and creation of the universe and showed the first two particles emerging from the Void's singularity influenced by the 1992 discovery of ripples in the cosmic microwave background radiation and the Presocratic Anaximander of Miletus In this work Hagger shows how this algebraic formula has worked as a universal algorithm 0 A A 0 Its many variations have acted as rules that have controlled the creation and development of the expanding universe its evolution and the rise of human history religion and science and its ultimate fate The formula is behind many of Hagger's works and his application of this algorithm to all human knowledge of the universe and all disciplines takes him to a first ever Theory of Everything which is set out at the end the algorithm of Creation containing 100 mathematical symbols reflecting all the variations that can be summed up in the above algorithm This startling achievement has been made possible by his Universalist cross disciplinary approach which focuses on the fundamental oneness of the universe and humankind and the unitive vision
