Envisioning Gender in Burgundian Devotional Art, 1350-1530 Andrea Pearson, 2017-05-15 Illuminated here are the relationships between visual culture faith and gender in the courtly monastic and urban spheres of the early modern Burgundian Netherlands By examining works by artists such as the Master of Mary of Burgundy Jan van Eyck Hans Memling and Bernard van Orley author Andrea Pearson identifies and explores pictorial constructions of masculinity and femininity in regard to the expectations experiences and practices of devotion Specifically she demonstrates that two of the most prominent visual genres of the period books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs were manipulated by patrons and spectators of both sexes to challenge and negotiate the boundaries and hierarchies of gender and that marginalized individuals and groups appropriated the types to resist the authority of others and advance their own Ultimately the books and diptychs emerge as critical and often contentious sites for deliberating and transacting gender By integrating books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs into current interdisciplinary theoretical discourse on gender power and devotion the author engages scholars in a range of disciplines art history history religion and literature as well as women's and men's studies and the inner eye determined the way in which eyes were perceived and represented It is the beholder whether as maker or viewer who engages with and judges the worth of any creative effort and what it contributes to an understanding of the seen and the unseen The illustrations and the many coloured plates accompanying the text offer an overview of the subject
