Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2004-04-27 In his astute and deeply informed film reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum regularly provides new and brilliant insights into the cinema as art entertainment and commerce Guided by a personal canon of great films Rosenbaum sees in the ongoing hostility toward the idea of a canon shared by many within the field of film studies a missed opportunity both to shape the discussion about cinema and to help inform and guide casual and serious filmgoers alike In Essential Cinema Rosenbaum forcefully argues that canons of great films are more necessary than ever given that film culture today is dominated by advertising executives sixty second film reviewers and other players in the Hollywood publicity machine who champion mediocre films at the expense of genuinely imaginative and challenging works He proposes specific definitions of excellence in film art through the creation a personal canon of both well known and obscure movies from around the world and suggests ways in which other canons might be similarly constructed Essential Cinema offers in depth assessments of an astonishing range of films established classics such as Rear Window M and Greed ambitious but flawed works like The Thin Red Line and Breaking the Waves eccentric masterpieces from around the world including Irma Vep and Archangel and recent films that have bitterly divided critics and viewers among them Eyes Wide Shut and A I He also explores the careers of such diverse filmmakers as Robert Altman Ra l Ruiz Frank Tashlin Elaine May Sam Fuller Terrence Davies Edward Yang Hou Hsiao hsien and Orson Welles In conclusion Rosenbaum offers his own film canon of 1 000 key works from the beginning of cinema to the present day A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is also a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere

Speaking Truths with Film Bill Nichols, 2016-04-05 How do issues of form and content shape the documentary film What role does visual evidence play in relation to a documentary s arguments about the world we live in In what ways do documentaries abide by or subvert ethical expectations Are mockumentaries a form of subversion Can the documentary be an aesthetic experience and at the same time have political or social impact And how can such impacts be empirically measured Pioneering film scholar Bill Nichols investigates the ways documentaries strive for accuracy and truthfulness and simultaneously fabricate a form that shapes reality Such films may rely on reenactment to re create the past storytelling to provide satisfying narratives and rhetorical figures such as metaphor or devices such as irony to make a point Documentaries are truly a fiction unlike any other With clarity and passion Nichols offers incisive commentaries on the basic questions of documentary's distinct relationship to the reality it represents as well as close readings of provocative documentaries from this form's earliest days to its most recent incarnations These essays offer a definitive account of what makes documentary film such a vital part of our cultural landscape Cinematic Encounters 2
