

TIME

Tick-tock-tick-tock Time speaks loudly when it's at its slowest.
Time-like ocean waves break onshore,
It erases my every footprint as I move into the future Leaving no traces back to the past where I took my first step.

Time plays tricks with us
Time always wins.

Bennett,2016 Poetry Visual Poetry A selection from over 40 years of Bennett s work introduced by Ivan Arg elles Where to begin writing about this baffling and certainly most avant garde of all poets living and working in the USA today Bennett s reputation is international and his interest in Mesoamerican culture has drawn him frequently to that part of the world where he is a recognized figure His experimentations over the years have encompassed multiple techniques including visual poetry and his own polyglottery moving in and out of English Spanish Portuguese French or some Mesoamerican language What may seem aleatory is in fact more intentional and grounded than is first apparent Bennett has roots in traditional literatures those of Siglo de Oro Spain and of Elizabethan England but he is capable of transducing those literatures metamorphosing them by way of the avant garde movements of the 20th century into something utterly innovative and New such as few contemporary artists have done

Under the Sign Ann Lauterbach, 2013-09-24 A new collection from the author of Or To Begin Again a finalist for the 2009 National Book Award in Poetry Ann Lauterbach is one of America's most innovative and provocative poets acclaimed for her fierce sensuous and intellectually charged poems In this her ninth book of poems Lauterbach pursues longstanding inquiries into how language forms and informs our understanding of the relation between empirical observation and subjective response worldly attachment and inwardness the given and the chosen The poems set out not so much to find cogent resolutions to these fluid dyads as to open them to the fact of unknowing that is at the core of all human curiosity and desire A central prose section tracks along a meditative edge engaging the risky task of opening the mind to the limits of apprehension the final section evokes in the figure of the instructor the essential contemporary question of how information becomes knowledge

Motherland Fatherland Homelandsexuals Patricia Lockwood, 2014-05-27 The acclaimed second collection of poetry by Patricia Lockwood Booker Prize finalist author of the novel No One Is Talking About This and the memoir Priestdaddy SELECTED AS A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR The New York Times The Boston Globe Powell's The Strand Barnes Noble BuzzFeed Flavorwire A formidably gifted writer who can do pretty much anything she pleases The New York Times Book Review Colloquial and incantatory the poems in Patricia Lockwood's second collection address the most urgent questions of our time like Is America going down on Canada What happens when Niagara Falls gets drunk at a wedding Is it legal to marry a stuffed owl exhibit Why isn't anyone named Gary anymore Did the Hatfield and McCoy babies ever fall in love The steep tilt of Lockwood's lines sends the reader snowballing downhill accumulating pieces of the scenery with every turn The poems subject is the natural world but their images would never occur in nature This book is serious and funny at the same time like a big grave with a clown lying in it

Quickening Fields Pattiann Rogers, 2017-06-06 Winner of the John Burroughs Medal for Lifetime Achievement in Nature Poetry A new collection by an award winning poet who presents her apprehensions of the natural world with striking accuracy and emotional impact Orion Magazine Denise Levertov has called Pattiann Rogers a visionary of reality perceiving the material world with such intensity of response that impulse intention meaning interconnections beyond the skin of appearance are revealed Quickening Fields gathers fifty three poems that focus on the wide variety of life forms present on earth and their unceasing zeal to exist their constant push against the beyond and the human experience among these lives Whether a glassy filament of flying insect a spiny spider crab a swath of switch grass barking short eared owls screeching coyotes or racing rat tailed sperm all are testifying to their complete devotion to being Many of the poems also address celestial phenomena the vision of the earth immersed in a dynamic cosmic milieu and the effects of this vision on the human spirit While primarily lyrical and celebratory in tone these poems acknowledge as well the terror suffering and unpredictability of the human condition Organs of Little

Importance Adrienne Chung, 2023-10-10 Mind detritus becomes the stuff of great art in the hands of poet Adrienne Chung a poet in complete command of her craft NPR.org Organs of Little Importance is a riotous feat Ferocious Funny Deeply intelligent Adrienne Chung leaves a charred wake Solmaz Sharif author of Customs and Look From National Poetry Series winner Adrienne Chung a debut poetry collection about psychology love and memory Taking its title from Darwin's On the Origin of Species Adrienne Chung's debut collection asks why we cling so dearly to the vestigial parts of our psychologies residues of first impressions thought spirals to nowhere memories that persist despite outliving their usefulness The speaker in these poems tries to wear more color indulges in Y2K nostalgia and falls in and out of love a Jungian psychoanalyst has a field day with her dreams While Darwin was perplexed and ultimately dismissive of these seemingly useless body parts Organs of Little Importance reframes and repositions the apparent uselessness of our compulsions superstitions errant thoughts and other selves In diptychs and ghazals sonnets and lullabies Chung collects and preserves pieces of psychological debris as one would care for precious heirlooms revealing their surprising potential to become sites of meaning and connection Mixology

Adrian Matejka, 2009-05-26 Selected for the 2008 National Poetry Series by Kevin Young The poems in Adrian Matejka's second collection Mixology shapeshift through the myriad meanings of mixing to explore and explode ideas of race skin politics appropriation and cultural identity Whether the focus of the individual poems is musical digital or historical the otherness implicit in being of more than one racial background guides Matejka's work to the inevitable conclusion that all things no matter how disparate are parts of the whole In Darwin's Room Debora Greger, 2017-06-06 An artful new collection from a poet who sees the extraordinary within the everyday In her tenth volume of poetry Debora Greger looks outward from the broadmindedness of the interior Whether she finds herself in Venice in London or young again in the sagebrush desert of her childhood the reader may feel Greger is both there and not there her landscapes are haunted by memory even in the act of experience Not shying from the raw or savage in life not ignoring the small moments of salvation or grace she finds in every room an entrance to another world Darwin's college quarters prove not far from his cabin on the Beagle A dress shop in Virginia reveals itself a Federal parlor through which a battle of the Civil War was fought Returning to old scenes with a new eye Greger proves herself a poet of quiet cunning of grand scenes and small awakenings

A Woman of Property Robyn Schiff, 2016-03-08 A Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize A new book from a poet whose work is wild with imagination unafraid ambitious inventive Jorie Graham Located in a menacing gothic landscape the poems that comprise A Woman of Property draw formal and imaginative boundaries against boundless mortal threat but as all borders are vulnerable this ominous collection ultimately stages an urgent and deeply imperiled boundary dispute where haunting illusion the presence of the past and disembodied voices only further unsettle questions of material and spiritual possession This is a theatrical book of dilapidated houses and overgrown gardens of passageways and thresholds edges prosceniums unearthings and root systems The unstable property lines here rove from heaven to hell troubling proportion and upsetting propriety in the name of unfathomable propagation Are all the gates in this book folly Are the walls too easily scaled to hold anything back or impose self confinement What won't a poem do to get to the other side Terroir Robert

Morgan,2011-09-27 The first full length collection in more than a decade from the award winning poet and author of the bestselling novel Gap Creek Robert Morgan has won acclaim for sonorous poems rooted in his native Blue Ridge Mountains that feature taut forceful often haunting imagery and carefully chiseled phrases The poems in Terroir build on his earlier work but reach out in several new directions exploring memory family narratives the natural world of trees and forest animals and the poetry of work Readers of Morgan's fiction will recognize many places themes and voices while fans of his poetry will see a fresh energy in poems drawing on science and folklore Native American history and music These elegantly written poems celebrate everything from the bonds of friendship and community to the fleeting sparkle of a drop of rain discovering wonder in the local and familiar the sacred in the everyday Certain Magical Acts Alice Notley,2016-06-07

An important new work of poetry from Alice Notley winner of the 2015 Ruth Lilly Poetry Prize Alice Notley has become one of the most highly regarded figures in American poetry a master of the visionary mode acclaimed for genre bending book length poems of great ambition and adventurousness Her newest work sets out to explore the world and its difficulties from the recent economic crisis and climate change to the sorrow of violence and the disappointment of democracy or any other political system Notley channels these themes in a mix of several longer poems one is a kind of spy novella in which the author is discovered to be a secret agent of the dead another an extended message found in a manuscript in a future defunct world with some unique shorter pieces Varying formally between long expansive lines a mysteriously cohering sequence in meters reminiscent of ancient Latin a narration with a postmodern broken surface and the occasional sonnet these are grand poems inviting the reader to be grand enough to survive spiritually a planet's ruin The Middle Ages Roger

Fanning,2012-03-27 A new collection from a Whiting award and National Poetry Series winner Thomas Lux has called Roger Fanning an American original whose poems are so pure so piercing so simple so distilled that reading him is like taking a drunk with language dive into a moonlit lake on a night you believe you will live forever Fanning writes surprising and evocative poems that are filled with humor and ingenuity Mary Karr says he tunes us in to those minuscule instants of revelation that can keep life from being a long zombie convention This new collection of poems Fanning's first in more than ten years in part chronicles a period of time when he suffered a break with reality and continues his investigations into the drudgeries the disappointments and the joy of our daily lives Trickster Feminism Anne Waldman,2018-07-03 New from celebrated poet and performer Anne Waldman an edgy visionary collection that meditates on gender existence passion and activism Mythopoetics shape shifting quantum entanglement Anthropocene blues litany and chance operation play inside the field of these intertwined poems which coalesced out of months of protests with some texts penned in the streets Anne

Waldman looks to the imagination of mercurial possibility to the spirits of the doorway and of crossroads and to language that jolts the status quo of how one troubles gender and outwits patriarchy She summons Tarot's Force Arcana the passion of the suffragettes and various messengers and heroines of historical hermetic and heretical stance creating an intersectionality of lived experience class sexuality race politics all enter the din These are experiments of survival Blue Rose Carol Muske-Dukes, 2018-04-03 A new collection of emotionally rich issue oriented poems from an award winning poet whose work has long been essential reading Jorie Graham Carol Muske Dukes has won acclaim for poetry that marries sophisticated intelligence emotional resonance and lyrical intensity The poems in her new collection Blue Rose navigate around the idea of the unattainable the elusive nature of poetry of knowledge of the fact that we know so little of the lives of others of the world in which we live Some poems respond to matters of women birth and the struggle for reproductive rights or to issues like gun control and climate change while others draw inspiration from the lives of women who persisted outside of convention in poetry art science the painter Paula Modersohn Becker the scientist and X ray crystallographer Rosalind Franklin and the Californian poet and writer Ina Coolbrith the first poet laureate ever appointed in America
