DiPadova-Stocks, 2008-06-01 This edited collection the first of its kind marries the two fastest growing movements in higher education service learning and eLearning While these two innovative pedagogies are widely assumed to be incompatible this collection highlights their complementary approaches as a new teaching method for 21st Century learners The collection offers a new pedagogical model service service eLearning defined as an integrative pedagogy that engages learners through technology in civic inquiry service reflection and action Service learning is an academically rigorous instructional method that incorporates meaningful community service into the curriculum Focusing on critical reflective thinking and civic responsibility servicelearning involves students in organized community service that addresses local needs while developing their academic skills respect for others and commitment to the common good DiPadova Stocks 2006 At the same time distance education has grown from paper based correspondence courses to highly interactive and dynamic pedagogies that incorporate online technologies to ensure rapid and meaningful interaction between geographically dispersed faculty and students The goal of this edited collection is to consider how these two educational innovations have

and can combine to further encourage civic engagement while meeting the demands of an increasingly global competitive and diverse educational marketplace This edited collection the first of its kind defines and addresses the emergent blending of service learning and eLearning to create a new integrated pedagogical model service eLearning Service eLearning Educating for Citizenship starts a conversation about the marriage of two powerful educational innovations While readers of this collection may be familiar with existing work on service learning and technology use this book demonstrates the potential of a new model which acknowledges eLearning as a pedagogy within its own right The new model presented here blends eLearning pedagogy with existing approaches to service learning The result is an integrated pedagogical approach Service eLearning As the work presented herein highlights service eLearning responds to the challenges of today s rapidly changing technology mediated reality

Navigating New Media Networks Bree McEwan,2015-08-13 Navigating New Media Networks examines the changes introduced into society through the increasing use of communication technology The development of a networked society has allowed individuals to acquire the social resources and support needed to thrive in the modern world but it has also placed great pressure on the individual to conduct the communication work needed to form and maintain relationships McEwan explores this issue by delving into topics like identity privacy communication competence online communities online social support mediated relational maintenance and mobile communication This work will be of interest to scholars of sociology psychology and communication

Post-Ethical Society Douglas V. Porpora,Alexander G. Nikolaev,Julia Hagemann May,Alexander Jenkins,2013-09-07 We ve all seen the images from Abu Ghraib stress positions US soldiers kneeling on the heads of prisoners and dehumanizing pyramids formed from black hooded bodies We have watched officials elected to our highest offices defend enhanced interrogation in terms of efficacy and justify drone strikes in terms of retribution and deterrence But the mainstream secular media rarely addresses the morality of these choices leaving us to ask individually Is this right In this singular examination of the American discourse over war and torture Douglas V Porpora Alexander Nikolaev Julia Hagemann May and Alexander Jenkins investigate the opinion pages of American newspapers television commentary and online discussion groups to offer the first empirical study of the national conversation about the 2003 invasion of Iraq and the revelations of prisoner abuse at Abu Ghraib a year later Post Ethical Society is not just another shot fired in the ongoing culture war between conservatives and liberals but a pensive and ethically engaged reflection of America s feelings about itself and our actions as a nation And while many writers and commentators have opined about our moral place in the world the vast amount of empirical data amassed in Post Ethical Society sets it apart and makes its findings that much more damning
