From Wonder To Wisdom Using Stories To Help Children Grow:

From Wonder to Wisdom Charles A. Smith, 1989 A Comprehensive Guide to Child Psychotherapy and Counseling Christiane Brems, 2008-03-19 Christiane Brems an experienced clinician supervisor and educator presents a metatheoretical yet practical guide to working with children ages 3 to 12 years She draws heavily on developmental interpersonal family systems and self psychological schools of thought and integrates the core components of all of these approaches in a clear and concise manner She stresses the need for intensive assessment to precede conceptualization and treatment planning so that treatment techniques are dictated by the needs of each child and family Brems has contoured the third edition to meet the practical needs and expectations of students and practitioners Divided among four sections the chapters follow the logical development of clinicians mirroring the natural flow of work with children from the practitioners self exploration to learning about special aspects of children such as diversity and development to awareness about the special needs and demands of children as related to environmental legal and ethical issues Brems prepares clinicians to discover their own personal traits that may facilitate or hinder their work with children She walks child therapists and counselors through the initial stages of intake assessment and conceptualization The material on assessment instruments is thoroughly updated discussions refer to the latest versions of instruments and if new instruments emerged that meet one of the purposes deemed essential to child treatment they are included The text contains case examples each illustrating a specific therapeutic technique productive values and behaviors styles of parental discipline and their influence on the development of the child and more

The Whole Story Handbook Carol L. Birch, 2000 Birch storyteller children's librarian and teacher tackles the slippery topic of the difference between reciting a memorized story and telling it directly and engagingly to listeners The storyteller must know far more about the story than he or she tells In addition to her own infectious prose Birch provides a series of guided imagery exercises that walk the reader through the nuts and bolts of learning imagining a story from the inside out in order to be fully present in its telling Family Stories and the Life Course Michael W. Pratt, Barbara H.

Fiese, 2004-04-26 Pratt Wilfred Laurier University and Fiese Syracuse University survey recent psychological research and theory on family stories which are first person accounts of personal experiences that have meaning to individuals and the family as a whole Contributors focus on the act of telling family stories Traditional Storytelling Today Margaret Read MacDonald, 2013-12-16 Traditional Storytelling Today explores the diversity of contemporary storytelling traditions and provides a forum for in depth discussion of interesting facets of contemporary storytelling Never before has such a wealth of information about storytelling traditions been gathered together Storytelling is alive and well throughout the world as the approximately 100 articles by more than 90 authors make clear Most of the essays average 2 000 words and discuss a typical storytelling event give a brief sample text and provide theory from the folklorist A comprehensive index is provided Bibliographies afford the reader easy access to additional resources Group Work Sondra Brandler, Camille P.

Roman, 2015-06-26 The new edition of Group Work adds a focus on diversity and the use of self in group work an area too often neglected in professional training but essential to meeting current competence standards set by the Council on Social Work Education As in previous editions students and professors will find thoughtful analyses of complicated value dilemmas and specific techniques for use in a diverse range of settings including confrontations and situations where humor is appropriate Complete with more games and exercises an updated discussion of values and ethics and an expanded skills section Group Work also contains excerpts and discussions of case studies that can be applied to students own experiences and will serve as a valuable references for years to come The Peaceful Classroom Charles A. Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying, 1995

Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying David Walter Adams, Eleanor J. Deveau, 1995 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today's society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremittant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents
