From Text to Hypertext Silvio Gaggi,2015-07-27 It is a tenet of postmodern writing that the subject the self is unstable fragmented and decentered One useful way to examine this principle is to look at how the subject has been treated in various media in the premodern modern and postmodern eras Silvio Gaggi pursues this strategy in From Text to Hypertext analyzing the issue of subject construction and deconstruction in selected examples of visual art literature film and electronic media Gaggi concentrates on a few paradigmatic works in each chapter he contrasts van Eyck's Wedding of Arnolfini with the photography of Cindy Sherman and Barbara Kruger examines fiction that centers on an elusive subject in works by Conrad Faulkner and Calvino and explores the ability of such films as Coppola's One from the Heart and Altman's The Player to emancipate the subject through cinematography and editing In considering electronic media Gaggi takes his argument to an entirely new level He focuses on computer controlled media specifically examples of hypertextual fiction by Michael Joyce and Stuart Moulthrop Besides recognizing how the computer has enabled artists to create works of fiction in which readers themselves become decentered Gaggi also observes the impact of literature created on computer networks where even the limitations of CD ROM are lifted and the notion of individual authorship may for all practical purposes be lost A
