Early Netherlands Painting From Van Eyck to Bruegel Max J. Friedlender, 1969 Early Netherlandish Painting at the Crossroads Maryan W. Ainsworth, 2001 The nine papers collected in this publication which comprises the third and latest edition to the symposium volumes by the Metropolitan Museum of Art were first presented in conjunction with the Museum's exhibition of Early Netherlandish painting culled from its own holdings in 1998 The essays by an international roster of leading specialists together uncover the circumstances underlying the creation of works of art and shed new light on their meaning in the context of the growing interdisciplinary activity and burgeoning scholarship in the field The importance of archival research into the socio economic factors that existed in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries is emphasized especially the impact of art markets on the production of paintings as well as sculpture Much new material has surfaced as a result of advances in the technical investigation of works of art underscoring the premise that the clues to the meaning of a work are often found not only in its method of manufacture but also in the specific audience for which it was intended and in the function that it originally served for that audience Publisher description Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W.

Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance

The Life of Lambert Lombard (1565); and Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries (1572) Dominicus Lampsonius, 2021-12-21 Among the earliest written texts on the history and theory of Netherlandish art these two key writings are now available together in an English translation Dominicus Lampsonius's The Life of Lambert Lombard 1565 is the earliest published biography of a Netherlandish artist This neo Latin account of the life of the painter architect and draftsman Lambert Lombard of Liège offers a theoretical exposition on the nature and ideal practice of Netherlandish art emphasizing Lombard's intellectual curiosity interest in antiquity attentive study of the human body and exemplary generosity as a teacher This volume offers the first English edition of The Life of Lambert Lombard complemented by a new translation of the inscriptions Lampsonius composed to accompany the Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries 1572 a cycle of twenty three engraved portraits of Netherlandish artists developed in collaboration with the print publisher Hieronymus Cock Together The Life of Lambert Lombard and the Effigies established frameworks for a distinctly Netherlandish history of art Responding to a growing sense of Netherlandish cultural and political identity on the eve of the Dutch Revolt these texts proposed a critical alternative to Giorgio Vasari's Lives of the Artists and its Italian model of art historical development celebrating local ingenuity and skill They remain the starting point for any history of the northern Renaissance

The New Art of the Fifteenth Century: Faith and Art in Florence and The Netherlands Shirley Neilsen Blum, 2013-09-03 A fresh look at the early Renaissance considering Florentine and Netherlandish art as a single phenomenon at once deeply spiritual and entirely new Adam and Eve are driven from the Garden of Eden into a rocky landscape their naked bodies lit by a cold sun their gestures and expressions a study in shame and anguish A serious man well attired kneels in prayer before the Virgin and Child close enough to touch them almost his furrowed brow setting off the saintly perfection of their features In fifteenth century Florence and Flanders painters were using an arsenal of new techniques including perspective anatomy and the accurate treatment of light and shade to present traditional religious subjects with an unprecedented immediacy and emotional power Their art was the product of a shared Christian culture and their patrons included not only nobles and churchmen but also the middle classes of these thriving commercial centers Shirley Neilsen Blum offers a new synthesis of this remarkable period in Western art between the refinements of the Gothic and the classicism of the High Renaissance when the mystical was made to seem real In the first part of her text Blum traces the emergence of a new naturalism in the sculpture of Claus Sluter and Donatello and then in the painting of Van Eyck and Masaccio In the second part she compares scenes from the Infancy and Passion of Christ as rendered by artists from North and South Exploring both the images themselves and the theological concepts that lie behind them she re-creates as far as possible the experience of the contemporary fifteenth century viewer Abundantly illustrated with color plates of masterworks by Fra Angelico Botticelli Rogier van der Weyden and others this thought provoking volume will appeal equally to general readers and students of art history Early Netherlandish Painting (1400-1500) Hélène Mund, Cyriel Stroo, 1998 Fifteenth- to Eighteenth-century European Paintings Metropolitan Museum of Art. Robert Lehman Collection, 1998 Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England Mary Bryan H. Curd, 2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London's changing art market Curd's exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu's model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today Money, Morality, and Culture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe Juliann M. Vitullo, Diane Wolfthal, 2010 One of the first volumes to explore the intersection of economics morality and culture this collection analyzes the role of the developing monetary economy in Western Europe from the twelfth to the seventeenth century The contributors scholars from the fields of history literature art history and musicology explore how money infiltrated every aspect of everyday life modified notions of social identity and encouraged debates about ethical uses of wealth Prayer Books and Piety in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe / Gebetbücher und Frömmigkeit in Spätmittelalter und Früher Neuzeit Maria Crăciun, Volker Leppin, Katalin Luffy, Ulrich A. Wien, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2023-05-15 This collected volume is dedicated to the role of prayer books in lay piety in medieval and early modern contexts Instead of focusing on individual examples it places them within the broader genre of devotional literature and considers them in connection with prevailing cultural religious and artistic developments taking into account the Reformation the printing press and growing interest in lay piety in the context of increasing individualism developing literacy privatization and or personalization of religion Contextualising devotional literature the volume refines understandings of religious practice fostered by traditional Catholicism and early modern Protestantism and its relationship with the written word locating the use of books within a devotional diet that included oral recitation of prayers as well as contemplation of images Stressing continuities often against the grain of existing literature this volume highlights differences between regional cultures of prayer in contrast to norms set by the universal Church and emphasizes the tension between public communal and private individual devotion Early Netherlanish Painting from Van Eyck to Bruegel Max J. Friedländer,1956 Early Netherlandish Painting National Gallery of Art (U.S.),John Oliver Hand,Martha Wolff,1986 The volume contains entries for paintings in the National gallery that were produced in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries by artists from the Netherlands The entries are arranged alphabetically by artist a short biography and bibliography for each artist is followed by individual entries on the paintings each in order of acquisition The authors address traditional questions of attributes and iconography in addition they examine the social economic and religious context in which the individual work of art functioned The volume is also probable the first museum catalogue to include the results of examination by infrared reflectography and dendrochronological analysis Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1911

F. Earle,K. J. P. Lowe,2005-05-26 This highly original book opens up the almost entirely neglected area of the black African presence in Western Europe during the Renaissance Covering history literature art history and anthropology it investigates a whole range of black African experience and representation across Renaissance Europe from various types of slavery to black musicians and dancers from real and symbolic Africans at court to the views of the Catholic Church and from writers of African descent to Black African criminality Their findings demonstrate the variety and complexity of black African life in fifteenth and sixteenth century Europe and how it was affected by firmly held preconceptions relating to the African continent and its inhabitants reinforced by Renaissance ideas and conditions Of enormous importance both for European and American history this book mixes empirical material and theoretical approaches and addresses such issues as stereotypes changing black African identity and cultural representation in art and literature The Oxford Dictionary of Art and Artists Ian Chilvers,2009 David Joris and Dutch Anabaptism, 1524-1543 Gary K.
