Food, Cuisine, and Cultural Competency for Culinary, Hospitality, and Nutrition Professionals Sari

Edelstein, 2011 Food Cuisine and Cultural Competency for Culinary Hospitality and Nutrition Professionals comprehensively covers unique food traditions as they apply to health The text explores the critical importance of cultural sensitivity and competency in today's work setting addresses health literacy issues of diverse client bases and helps readers identify customer communication techniques that enable professionals to establish trust with clients of ethnicity not their own Written and peer reviewed by experts in the culture discussed each chapter in this groundbreaking text covers a distinct region or culture and discusses the various contexts that contribute to nutrition and health lifestyles eating patterns ethnic foods menu planning communication verbal and non verbal and more This book is consistent with The American Dietetic Association's Cultural Competence Strategic Plan Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Understanding Tropical Coastal and Island Tourism Development Klaus Meyer-Arendt, Alan A. Lew, 2016-03-17 This volume contains a collection of articles that include both case studies and theoretical insights applicable to the tourism development challenges of tropical coastal and island destinations throughout the world Topics include the shortcoming of eco tourism in Madagascar collaboration theory and successful multi stakeholder partnerships on Indonesian resort islands resilience theory and development pressures on a Malaysian island results and implications of a detailed survey of cruise passengers in Colombia perceptions of underdevelopment as limiting factors in Costa Rica and conflicts of perception and reality through the literary myths of Pitcairn Island This book was published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies The Publishers Weekly, 2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women s involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women s sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory
