Germ! They Don't Care! Kellie Speechley,2023-11-15 The germ have made Miyam rather sick He has all the horrible symptoms from a scratchy throat to a sore head But what is a cat to do when he s managed to get so sick Will he get well again When washing your hands and staying well is more important than ever how do you teach a child why they need to be careful of germ and how they can protect themselves and others Join Miyam in learning what he needs to do to stay safe from the germs next time As children start to learn about the world around them personal hygiene and keeping themselves and others healthy are important concepts but sometimes hard to explain This is colouring book with a fun rhyming story where children can follow the journey of Miyam a toy cat to understand some of the symptoms of being sick where germs might be hiding out and what we can do to avoid getting sick and not spread germs to others The germ characters in the story are entirely imaginary and perhaps even cute but allow a child to start understanding the concept of germs and some of the ways to stay clean and healthy such as sneezing into your elbow washing your hands and staying home so that the germs are not spread to others Why this book Kids will love the rhymes and remember the key concepts as the rhyme stays in their head The book keeps kids engaged looking for Miyam s two friends in each page It provides a fun non serious approach to why we sometimes get sick how to avoid germs and promotes handwashing and other techniques for staying healthy and stopping the spread of germs to others It is an excellent resource for home kindergartens pre schools and childcare
