Germs are very tiny living things that cause sickness There are too small for us to see We need a microscope to see them Some germs live inside people s chests and lungs They are spread by coughing and spitting Some germs live inside people s stomachs and intestines They are spread in excreta Some germs get on food on hands under fingernails and in water They cause diarrhoea sickness Some animals carry germs from one place to another We can fight germs or kill them in different ways For example boiling water heat and sunlight all kill germs Eating good food and being immunized help the body fight germs A clean home and village help keep germs away This book is one of the items of instructional material produced for

Viruses are disarmingly small and simple None the less the smallpox virus killed over 300 million people in the 20th century prior to its eradication in 1980 The AIDS virus HIV is now the single most common cause of death in Africa In recent years the outbreaks of several lethal viruses such as Ebola and hanta virus have caused great public concern In her fascinating and vividly written book Dorothy Crawford describes all aspects of the natural history of these deadly parasites explaining how they differ from other microorganisms She looks at the havoc viruses have caused in the past where they have come from and the detective work involved in uncovering them Finally she considers whether a new virus could potentially wipe out the human race This is an informative and highly readable book which will be read by all those seeking a deeper understanding examples of salt that has lost its savour Jesus said an unprofitable servant is good for nothing It is important that salt makes its presence felt There may be salt in your food but it must be enough if it is to have any effect You are the salt of the earth so you must make your presence felt in this earth Are you good for nothing in the kingdom This prophetic book about salt and

Marketing visionary Martin Lindstrom has been on the front line of the branding for over twenty years In Brandwashed he turns the spotlight on his own industry drawing on all he has witnessed behind closed doors exposing for the first time the full extent of the psychological tricks and traps that companies devise to win our hard earned money Lindstrom reveals eye opening details such as how advertisers and marketers target children at an alarmingly young age starting when they are still in the womb what heterosexual men really think about when they see sexually provocative advertising how marketers and retailers stoke the flames of public panic and capitalize on paranoia over diseases extreme weather events and food contamination scares It also presents the first ever evidence to prove how addicted we are to our smartphones and how certain companies like the maker of a very popular lip balm purposely adjust their formulas in order to make their products chemically addictive and much much more Brandwashed is a shocking insider s look at how today s global giants conspire to obscure the truth and manipulate our minds all in service of persuading us to buy
