Getting to the Heart of Leadership Megan Crawford, 2009-01-13 This book makes an important contribution to the literature on educational leadership and should help to shift the emphasis from rational and accountability related models to an explicit recognition of the importance of emotions to effective leadership Educational Management Administration and Leadership This book contains a wealth of case studies and vignettes to help leaders be more aware of the ways in which emotion impacts on their practice and to develop a productive and sustainable set of emotional responses experiences and leadership tools Headteacher Update This is a highly readable and engaging introduction to both the importance and power of emotions in the life and work of headteachers While leaders emotions have been badly neglected in the literature the rich body of evidence the author shares with readers indicates how central such emotions are to sustaining improvement efforts in schools Professor Ken Leithwood Ontario Institute for Studies in Education OISE University of Toronto Canada The affective side of leadership is often forgotten as school heads and leaders strive for excellence and accountability This extremely important book brings to the forefront the emotional attachments of leadership the interpersonal relationships and self awareness that are at the core of leadership action and decision making The case stories and reviews of multiple perspectives and theories provide the reader with a rich and essential resource Ellen B Goldring Professor of Education Policy and Leadership Vanderbilt University The book is framed to illuminate how headteachers experience and talk about emotion and meaning in their daily interactions and sets out to understand how emotion impacts on their leadership author s introduction Understanding the close relationship between leadership and emotion is essential for school leaders in creating modifying and sustaining the emotional coherence of the whole school Megan Crawford aims to help school leaders understand why emotion is such a powerful component of leadership The author examines how school leaders experience emotion and meaning in their daily interactions and presents a reflective journey concentrating on the personal side of school leadership The author shows how school climate depends on the personal emotional quality of the leader and his her interface with other social relationships in the school covering areas such as difficult people and situations shame loss and drawing on primary and secondary case studies school leaders reflections and the influence of their life history school context and emotional epiphanies This book is for practising educational leaders and managers tutors and students on Masters courses EdD courses and on programmes such as the National Professional Qualification for Headship its equivalent for Children s centres and other national programmes in educational leadership and management Learning

Transformed Eric C. Sheninger, 2017-06-06 With all that we know about how students learn the nature of the world they will face after graduation and the educational inequities that have existed for centuries maintaining a traditional one size fits all approach to teaching and learning is tantamount to instructional malpractice International security the success of global economies and sustainability as a global society all depend on the success of our education system in the years to come It s our obligation to prepare our students for their future not our past Authors Eric C Sheninger and Thomas C Murray outline eight keys each a piece of a puzzle for transforming the K 12 education system of teaching and learning to intentionally design tomorrow s schools so today s learners are prepared for success and stand ready to create new industries find new cures and solve world problems The traditional model of schooling ultimately prepares students for the industrial model of the past If we want our students to become successful citizens in a global society we must dramatically shift to a more personal approach Failure is not an option We can no longer wait Let Learning Transformed show you how you can be a part of the solution The authors encourage you to use the hashtag LT8Keys to continue the discussion online Get out of Your Head and into Your Heart Integrating the Mind and Heart Suzi Usdane Wall MSW LCSW,2023-04-28 After years of listening to her private clients ask Do you have a book where I can read about your ideas and practice your tools Suzi Usdane Wall MSW LCSW has written this book to assist others in learning and implementing her tools strategies and coping techniques Have you ever experienced feelings of anxiety depression or negative thinking This book is a resource to help you make changes in your life We will explore ways to be healthy have tools to use when things are challenging feel more confident and independent in everyday life Start your personal path of redirection lessen your negative thinking move towards feelings of value and worthiness This book will assist you on a journey in self discovery and redirection as you work to get out of your head and into your heart Health Media Review Index, 1984-86 Deborah J.
