enormous authority and a compelling lively voice Ellen Reeves brings together her lifetime of experience of hiring counseling and resume doctoring into an essential guide for young job seekers Can I Wear My Nose Ring to the Interview takes readers step by step through a process that was always tough but is today especially challenging Yes if you're wedded to your nose ring wear it to the interview No you shouldn't be emailing out hundreds of resumes Begin the search with a professional mind set get organized and set yourself up with business cards a respectable email address and a working cell phone The importance of networking and the rule of three try to make three emails or phone calls a day but never more than that The elevator speech hone your pitch to the length of an elevator ride and be prepared to use it at the most unexpected times The art of writing cringe free cover letters and killer resumes from timelines hooks and grammatical dos and don'ts to why you should never use the phrase References available upon request never include your GPA and never ever make a typo How to dress for an interview including why to put on your business clothes when interviewing at home over the phone Things to be honest about citizenship and past salary range And things not to say I want this job because I need health insurance Then once you're in how to negotiate salary what to expect in a review and basic first job common sense take initiative be humble and helpful never use your boss as a confidant and always say I'll find out instead of I don't know Now you're on your way
