Dance, Moving the Music Mohd Anis Nor, Kendra Stepputat, 2016-07-01 Performing arts in most parts of Maritime Southeast Asia are seen as an entity where music and dance sound and movement acoustic and tactile elements intermingle and complement each other Although this fact is widely known and referenced most scholarly works in the performing arts so far have either focused on music or dance rather than treating the two in combination The authors in this book look at both aspects in performance moreover they focus explicitly on the interrelation between the two on both descriptive analytical and metaphorical levels The book includes diverse examples of regional performing art genres from Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines All case studies are composed from the perspective of the relatively new approach and field of ethno choreomusicology This particular compilation gives an exemplary overview of various phenomena in movement sound relations and offers for the first time a thorough study of the phenomenon that is considered essential for the performing arts in Maritime Southeast Asia the inseparability of movement and sound     Visuality in the Theatre M. Bleeker, 2008-04-17 This book presents an exploration of the under explored terrain of visuality demonstrating the use of new theoretical insights into vision for the analysis of theatre and performance and simultaneously shows theatre and performance to be an excellent theoretical object for exploring the cultural historical and embodied character of visuality     Dance Ethnography and Global Perspectives L.
