Getting Institutions Right for Women in Development Anne Marie Goetz,1997-12 This text argues that development organizations must be recognized as structurally deeply gendered and that strategies for women must aim at institutional transformation Mainstreaming Gender in Development Fenella Porter, Caroline Sweetman, 2005 Articles discuss how gender mainstreaming has been understood in different organisations provide examples of good work which supports the empowerment of women and look beyond gender mainstreaming to what new possibilities exist for transformation

Empowering Rural Women Zubair Meenai, 2003 Women Self Help Groups Are Increasingly Being Used As Tool For Various Developmental Interventions Credit And Its Delivery Through Self Help Groups Have Also Been Taken As A Means For Empowerment Of Rural Women This Integrated Approach Whereby Credit Is Only An Entry Point And An Instrument To Operationalise Other Aspects Of Group Dynamics And Management Also Caters To The Need For Social Intermediation Of These Groups A Self Help Group Is Conceived As A Sustainable People S Institution That Provides The Poor Rural Women With Space And Support Necessary For Them To Take Effective Steps Towards Achieving Greater Control Of Their Lives It Is With This Perspective That This Book Has Been Attempted This Work Seeks To Elucidate And Simplify The Approach To Women S Empowerment Through Credit Based Self Help Groups By Both Providing The Theoretical Perspective As Well As Practical Guidance And Tips To Operationalise The Same This Book Is Meant Primarily As A First Level Reader For Middle Level Functionaries In The Development Sector The Globalization of Foreign Aid Liam Swiss, 2017-12-01 Why do aid agencies from wealthy donor countries with diverse domestic political and economic contexts arrive at very similar positions on a wide array of aid policies and priorities This book suggests that this homogenization of policy represents the effects of common processes of globalization manifest in the aid sector Drawing on both quantitative and qualitative analysis of policy adoption the book argues that we need to examine macro level globalizing influences at the same time as understanding the micro level social processes at work within aid agencies in order to adequately explain the so called emerging global consensus that constitutes the globalization of aid The book explores how global influences on aid agencies in Canada Sweden and the United States are mediated through micro level processes Using a mixed methods approach the book combines cross national statistical analysis at the global level with two comparative case studies which look at the adoption of common policy priorities in the fields of gender and security The Globalization of Foreign Aid will be useful to researchers of foreign aid development international relations and globalization as well as to the aid policy community The Open Access version of this book available at http www taylorfrancis com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY 4 0 license The Ombudsman, Good Governance and the International Human Rights System Linda C. Reif, 2013-12-19 This book uses comparative law and comparative international law approaches to explore the role of human rights ombuds classic based ombuds and other types of ombuds institutions in human rights protection and promotion their methods of application of international and domestic human rights law and their roles in strengthening good governance It highlights the increasing importance of national human rights ombuds institutions globally and their roles as national human rights institutions NHRIs Chapters address ombuds institutions as mechanisms to strengthen democratic horizontal and vertical accountability the rule of law and good governance national human rights ombuds institutions as NHRIs the investigatory litigation promotional and other powers of human rights and classic based ombuds and their methods for applying international and domestic human rights law ombuds institutions and the protection and promotion of international children's rights national human rights ombuds additional mandates as OPCAT national preventive mechanisms UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Article 33 2 framework mechanisms and EU national equality bodies human rights ombuds and business and human rights ombuds institutions gender and women s rights the European Ombudsman and human rights national human rights ombuds and other ombuds models by region accompanied by case studies on national human rights ombuds and the legal and extra legal factors affecting ombuds institutional effectiveness Feminist Subversion and Complicity Maitrayee Mukhopadhyay, 2017-03-06 Feminist Subversion and Complicity interrogates a specific form of feminist practice that which has involved engaging with state and international institutions to insert gender knowledge in their development interventions Bringing together contributions from eight feminists located in very different kinds of institutions and spaces from Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and India this book is the outcome of a deeply reflexive process to produce a critique from within of this present day feminist practice An array of experiences and encounters are scrutinised from bringing feminist perspectives to governmental projects on education health and legal reform to transformations in the discourses and practices of women's movements and feminisms as they encountered developmentalisms. The writers show that feminist politics is not merely assimilated in governmental projects but that it interrupts these projects even as it is assimilated a feminist politics in which complicity is often a subversive activity is destabilizing and contesting of meaning The Future of Women's Rights Joanna Kerr, Ellen Sprenger, Alison Symington, 2004-09 The Future of Women's Rights identifies the emergence of various trends threatening the advance of gender equality women s human rights and sustainable human development These phenomena include the impacts of globalization and neoliberal economics developments in biotechnology the neo conservative backlash against women's rights monopolistic ownership patterns over information technologies the rise of identity politics marginalizing women's issues and the increase in violent conflict and war The contributors to this volume are united in seeing a pressing need for women's movements to evaluate their methods with a view to making their future political work more effective. They identify current issues and trends in the world thinking through how these may impact women and the work of women s Advancing gender equality through agricultural and environmental research: Past, present, and future movements Pyburn, Rhiannon, ed., van Eerdewijk, Anouka, ed., 2021-11-02 Over the past decade interest in gender equality and women s empowerment has grown rapidly creating a unique opportunity to institutionalize gender research within agricultural research for development This book edited by researchers from the CGIAR Gender Platform reviews and reflects on the growing body of evidence from gender research It marks a shift a way from a traditional focus on how gender analysis can contribute to improved productivity flipping the question to ask How does agricultural and environmental research and development contribute to gender equality and women s empowerment Chapters synthesize the wide range of CGIAR and other research in this area covering breeding research and seed systems value chain participation nutrition sensitive agriculture natural resources climate adaptation and mitigation the feminization of agriculture women s role in agricultural research and emerging gender transformative approaches Gender in Agriculture Sourcebook World Bank, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), 2008-10-07 The Gender in Agriculture Sourcebook provides an up to date understanding of gender issues and a rich compilation of compelling evidence of good practices and lessons learned to guide practitioners in integrating gender dimensions into agricultural projects and programs It is serves as a tool for guidance showcasing key principles in integrating gender into projects stimulating the imagination of practitioners to apply lessons learned experiences and innovations to the design of future support and investment in the agriculture sector The Sourcebook draws on a wide range of experience from World Bank Food and Agriculture Organization FAO International Fund for Agricultural Development IFAD and other donor agencies governments institutions and groups active in agricultural development The Sourcebook looks at access to and control of assets access to markets information and organization and capacity to manage risk and vulnerability through a gender lens There are 16 modules covering themes of cross cutting importance for agriculture with strong gender dimensions Policy Public Administration and Governance Agricultural Innovation and Education Food Security Markets Rural Finance Rural Infrastructure Water Land Labor Natural Resource Management and Disaster and Post Conflict Management and specific subsectors in agriculture Crops Livestock Forestry and Fisheries A separate module on Monitoring and Evaluation is included responding to the need to track implementation and development impact Each module contains three different sub units 1 A Module Overview gives a broad introduction to the topic and provides a summary of major development issues in the sector and rationale of looking at gender dimension 2 Thematic Notes provide a brief and technically sound guide in gender integration in selected themes with lessons learned guidelines checklists organizing principles key questions and key performance indicators and 3 Innovative Activity Profiles describe the design and innovative features of recent and exciting projects and activities that have been implemented or are ongoing Women Teaching in South Asia Jackie Kirk, 2008-11-11 This collection adds fresh perspectives to the current policy and programming initiatives concerning woman teachers in South Asia It discusses the issues related to the lives and experiences of woman teachers in Afghanistan Pakistan Sri Lanka India Nepal and Bangladesh providing a common framework for the analysis of the policies and programmes with and for them in relation to their lived experiences as women in diverse families communities and societies of the region It promotes critical discussion of the potential and agency of woman teachers to create change in schools and in society dwelling on the structural limitations that exist for women working within patriarchal institutions in male dominated societies Women Teaching in South Asia argues for a broader gender equality and empowerment perspective when working with woman teachers and for developing policy and programmes The chapters demonstrate the need for explicit attention to gender in the power dynamics between women and men in the roles they play and in the tasks they perform in schools This compilation is a valuable contribution with recommendations for future policy programme and research project development to bridge the gender divide and make sustainable progress towards Millennium Development Goals MDGs and Education for All EFA It will be a rich resource for ministries of education NGOs and other agencies supporting educational development as well as for researchers and academicians working in the fields of Education and Gender Studies The boundaries of international law Hilary Charlesworth, Christine Chinkin, 2022-04-19 In the first book length treatment of the application of feminist theories of international law Charlesworth and Chinkin argue that the absence of women in the development of international law has produced a narrow and inadequate jurisprudence that has legitimated the unequal position of women worldwide rather than confronting it The boundaries of international law provides a feminist perspective on the structure processes and substance of international law shedding new light on treaty law the concept of statehood and the right of self determination the role of international institutions and the law of human rights Concluding with a consideration of whether the inclusion of women in the jurisdiction of international war crimes tribunals represents a significant shift in the boundaries of international law the book encourages a dramatic rethinking of the discipline of international law With a new introduction that reflects on the profound changes in international law since the book s first publication in 2000 this provocative volume is essential reading Complex Systems Theory and Development Practice Samir Rihani, 2002 for scholars practitioners and students alike Ranging over a wide terrain of social political and economic thinking and specific country experiences the author explains the key concepts in complex systems theory and their possible applications in development practice He examines various development issues and institutions in the light of what he sees as the limitations of rigid linear thinking in an essentially fluid non linear world Little wonder he concludes that the results of half a century of development effort have been so The Indian Parliament B.L. Shankar, Valerian Rodrigues, 2014-12-15 The Parliament is the disappointing BOOK JACKET visible face of democracy in India It is the epicentre of political life public institutions of great verve and a regime of Rights In a first of its kind study this book delves into the lived experience of the Indian Parliament by focusing on three distinct phases the 1950s the 1970s and the 1990s and beyond The authors argue against the widely held notion of its ongoing decline and demonstrate how it has repeatedly and successfully responded to India's changing needs in six decades of existence This comprehensive and authoritative study examines the changing social composition and differing modes of representation that make up the Lok Sabha and critically explores its relation with the Rajya Sabha Developments in the institutional complex of the Parliament including the functioning of the Opposition and the Speaker are traced over time along with the processes of legislation and accountability Major debates in the House are scrutinized and much of the analysis is based on empirical data gathered from surveys circulated among prominent politicians and public intellectuals It also addresses the intricate issue of relations between the Judiciary and the Parliament In its in depth focus on the Lok Sabha the volume highlights the way the Parliament has come to encompass India's proverbial diversity It especially demonstrates the route this institution has taken to engage with fractious issues of diverging linguistic and regional demands

Governance and Sustainability Ulrich Petschow, James Rosenau, Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker, 2017-09-29 Sustainability cannot be achieved without good governance The Johannesburg World Summit on Sustainable Development in 2002 stated that governance and sustainable development are intimately tied together and the future role and architecture of institutions from local to international levels will be crucial determinants to whether future policies and programmes for sustainable development will succeed But these are changing times With growing tensions over both globalization and regionalization traditional systems of regulation are being subjected to growing pressure for reform While states will continue to play a significant if changed role in the future the importance of players from business and civil society is increasing Sustainable development requires this change Such an intra and intergenerational concept cannot be achieved with a top down approach but rather needs the participation of all In fact the governance of sustainable development requires the exploration of new forms of both social co operation and confrontation By doing so the different levels global and local players state company and civil society control structures hierarchy market and public private and fields of action need to be taken into consideration Governance and Sustainability examines the possibilities of integrating the environmental social and economic dimensions of sustainable development within the framework of governance processes and how that might steer societies towards sustainability It takes a close look at the key actors their agendas and methods forms of organization problems and limits as well as real life examples for governance in different areas of society at the regional national and international level It is especially interested in exploring the nature of changes in the context of governance the role of actors in such processes and analysing how different forms of societal learning can improve governance processes It concludes that this is a continuous process characterized by conflicts and learning processes necessary to heighten both awareness of the complexity of the social and environmental problems faced and the prospects of implementing successful solutions Based on a major conference hosted to assess the issue of governance post Johannesburg the book includes innovative insights from some of the leading thinkers in both sustainable development and governance from academia business multilateral organizations and NGOs It provides a unique perspective on two of the key societal problems facing the world today Women's Movements in International Perspective M. Molyneux, 2016-01-28 The analysis of gender and political inequality and the women s movements that have contested it has concentrated on the West In this wide ranging reevaluation incorporating development studies and political sociology Maxine Molyneux redresses this balance by analysing Latin American women's movements within liberal authoritarian and revolutionary states These studies of Argentina Nicaragua and Cuba alongside comparative discussions of socialism women's movements and citizenship examine the complex and persistent interaction of states and women's movements and the diversity of responses engendered Microfinance in India Tara S. Nair, 2018-10-24 This volume presents a comprehensive analysis of microfinance initiatives in India Through substantive field research and case studies ranging across the country it examines Indian microfinance within its distinct socio economic realities the role of women financial inclusion rural entrepreneurship and innovation its interactions with multiple institutions the challenges as well as future directions Freedom on the Frontlines Lina AbiRafeh, 2022-02-21 Afghan women were at the forefront of global agendas in late 2001 fueled by a mix of media coverage humanitarian intervention and military operations Calls for liberating Afghan women were widespread Women's roles in Afghanistan have long been politically divisive marked by struggles between modernization and tradition Women politics and the state have always been intertwined in Afghanistan and conflicts have been fueled by attempts to challenge or change women s status It may appear that we have come full circle twenty years later in late 2021 when Afghanistan fell to the Taliban once more Women's rights in Afghanistan have been stripped away and any gains however tenuous now appear lost Today the country navigates both a humanitarian and a human rights crisis This book measures the rhetoric of liberation and the physical and ideological occupations of Afghanistan over the twenty year period from 2001 through 2021 through the voices perspectives and experiences of those who are implicated in this reality Afghan women Palestinian Women's Activism Islah Jad, 2018-12-26 Jad traces the transformation of the Palestinian women s movement from the 1930s to the post Oslo period and through the Second Intifada to examine the often fraught relationship between women and nationalism in Palestine Offering one of the first intensive studies of Islamist women s activism [ad also explores the impact of emerging feminist NGOs in depoliticizing the secular Palestinian women s movement Studying these two developments together illuminates the nature of women s engagement in the Palestinian space challenging myths of gender roles immutability under Islam and the supposed modernizing benefits of Western style activism Critical Reflections on Cities in Southeast Asia Tim Bunnell, Lisa Drummond, Ho, 2021-11-15 Critical Reflections draws together the multi disciplinary research of scholars working in on cities across Southeast Asia The fourteen essays collected in the volume are organised into three thematic sections re conceptualisation competition and intervention Collectively these reflections contribute to and interrogate the expanding urban and regional studies literature The volume constitutes a critical corrective to the existing literature which all too often seeks to diagnose contemporary urban trends everywhere from a small number of mostly Western paradigmatic cases Yet while acknowledging the increasing interconnectedness and shared global orientation of most cities in Southeast Asia the volume is wary of positing an equally generalising regional model Individually these essays attend to the diversity of contemporary urban experiences in Southeast Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination Asia Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-02-05 With the newly inaugurated US Presidential Administration signing several orders to mitigate discrimination and racism within the United States government attentions globally are once again brought to the Black Lives Matter campaign and its message Discrimination in business contexts social interactions and educational institutions remains a concern for leaders today The empowerment of marginalize communities has been rapidly spreading through societies thanks to the platforms that social media now offer The Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination is a three volume hand selected compilation of the highest quality research on the empowerment of marginalized communities that have been experiencing ongoing discrimination To shed light on the underpinnings of disparities between marginalized groups and overreaching society this text explores social justice applications and practices and the changes being made or pushed for around the globe that promote equality fair treatment and inclusivity This book is ideal for sociologists teachers activists practitioners managers administrators policymakers government officials researchers academicians and students working in fields such as gender studies race studies social justice behavioral studies history sociology anthropology psychology law as well as anyone interested in the current practices and advances in mitigating racism and discrimination in society
