Getting To Know Britain People Places Getting To Know:

Britain's Wartime Evacuees Gillian Mawson, 2016-11-30 With the declaration of war in September 1939 the Government Evacuation Scheme was implemented in which almost one and a half million civilians mostly children were evacuated from the British cities thought most likely to be the targets of aerial bombing The fear of invasion the following year resulted in another mass evacuation from the coastal towns Hundreds of thousands of school children and mothers with babies and infants were removed from their homes and families and sent to live with strangers in distant rural areas and to entirely unfamiliar environments Some children were also sent to countries of the Commonwealth such as Canada and Australia The evacuations had an enormous impact upon millions of individuals both those that were evacuated and those that had to accommodate and care for the displaced multitude Over the course of eight years research Gillian Mawson has interviewed hundreds of evacuees from England Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales Families have also allowed her access to the testimony of those who have passed away Coupled with the extensive newspaper coverage of the day and official documents Britains Wartime Evacuees provides not just a comprehensive study of the evacuations but also relates some of the most moving and emotive stories of the Second World War People, Places and Policy Martin Jones, Scott Orford, Victoria Macfarlane, 2015-08-27 The Open Access version of this book available at www.tandfebooks.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license Set within the context of UK devolution and constitutional change People Places and Policy offers important and interesting insights into place making and locality making in contemporary Wales Combining policy research with policy maker and stakeholder interviews at various spatial scales local regional national it examines the historical processes and working practices that have produced the complex political geography of Wales This book looks at the economic social and political geographies of Wales which in the context of devolution and public service governance are hotly debated It offers a novel new localities theoretical framework for capturing the dynamics of locality making to go beyond the obsession with boundaries and coterminous geographies expressed by policy makers and politicians Three localities Heads of the Valleys north of Cardiff central and west coast regions Ceredigion Pembrokeshire and the former district of Montgomeryshire in Powys and the A55 corridor from Wrexham to Holyhead are discussed in detail to illustrate this and also reveal the geographical tensions of devolution in contemporary Wales This book is an original statement on the making of contemporary Wales from the Wales Institute of Social and Economic Research Data and Methods WISERD researchers It deploys a novel new localities theoretical framework and innovative mapping techniques to represent spatial patterns in data This allows the timely uncovering of both unbounded and fuzzy relational policy geographies and the more bounded administrative concerns which come together to produce and reproduce over time Wales regional geography The Chosen City Nicholas Schoon, 2004-02-24 There is endless talk about the need for an urban renaissance can it happen in the real world In this broad challenging and highly engaging book Nicholas Schoon argues that the foremost priority for regeneration is to make neighbourhoods and cities places where people with choices choose to live The author surveys the last two centuries of metropolitan growth and decay analyzes the successes and failures of recent changes in urban policy and proposes a wide range of radical measures to make the renaissance a reality Comprehensively researched The Chosen City is a wake up call for everyone interested and involved in urban regeneration degree students and academics planning and housing professionals architects surveyors developers and politicians The text is illustrated with powerful black and white images from a leading national newspaper photographer

People. Places and Things James Payn, 1865 Learning to be a Primary Teacher Jonathan Glazzard, Michael

Green, 2025-02-28 Learning to be a primary teacher can feel like trying to become a superhero The new edition of this book will help you harness your superpowers to become that heroic individual looked up to by your class able to be simultaneously fun authoritative inspiring responsive to a range of needs and an expert in all subjects Rooted in the core content framework and informed by the early career framework and new Ofsted inspection framework it will ensure you are fully equipped to tackle planning and assessment with ease champion positive behaviour master curriculum sequencing build composite subject knowledge and understanding challenge and apply theory and research maximise your emotional strength and resilience stand tall as a professional promote diversity inclusion and social justice and most importantly protect and nurture the children in your care Highly recommended for all trainees Early Career Teachers and mentors this book is packed full of wise advice on building professional knowledge about what is required to excel at meeting the expectations of both the DfE Teachers Standards and the Early Career Framework Not to be missed Dame Alison Peacock CEO of the Chartered College of Teaching People, Places, Things - Essays by Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Bowen, 2008-11-26 This volume collects for the first time essays published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime as well as essays which have never been published before The range of subjects alone makes these essays indispensable reading Throughout her career Elizabeth Bowen the Anglo Irish novelist and short story writer also wrote literary essays that display a shrewd generous intelligence Always sensitive to underlying tensions she evokes the particular climate of countries and places in Hungary Prague and the Crisis and Bowen's Court In Britain in Autumn she records the strained atmosphere of the blitz as no other writer does Immediately after the war she reported on the International Peace Conference in Paris in a series of essays that are startling in their evocation of tense diplomacy among international delegates scrabbling to define the boundaries of Europe and the stakes of the Cold War The aftershock of war registers poignantly in Opening Up the House owners evacuated during the war return to their houses empty since 1939 Other essays in this volume especially those on James Joyce Jane Austen and the technique of writing offer indispensable mid century evaluations of the state of literature The essays assembled in this volume were published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime She herself did not gather them into any collection Some of these essays exist only as typescript drafts and are published here for the first time Bowen's observations on age toys disappointment charm and manners place her among the very best literary essayists of the modernist period Knowing Places Elizabeth Moores,2012 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1993 Participatory Budgeting in the United States Victoria Gordon,Jeffery L. Osgood, Jr.,Daniel Boden,2016-10-04 Although citizen engagement is a core public service value few public administrators receive training on how to share leadership with people outside the government Participatory Budgeting in the United States serves as a primer for those looking to understand a classic example of participatory governance engaging local citizens in examining budgetary constraints and priorities before making recommendations to local government Utilizing case studies and an original set of interviews with community members elected officials and city employees this book provides a rare window onto the participatory budgeting process through the words and experiences of the very individuals involved The central themes that emerge from these fascinating and detailed cases focus on three core areas creating the participatory budgeting infrastructure increasing citizen participation in participatory budgeting and assessing and increasing the impact of participatory budgeting This book provides students local government elected officials practitioners and citizens with a comprehensive understanding of participatory budgeting and straightforward guidelines to enhance the process of civic engagement and democratic values in local communities Britain's Pilgrim Places Guy Hayward,Nick Mayhew-Smith,2020-08-06 Britain's Pilgrim Places captures the spirit of 2 000 years of history heritage and wonder It is the complete guide to every spiritual treasure including 500 enchanting holy places throughout England Wales and Scotland and covers all major pilgrimage routes Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2007-08-29 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya People, places and identities Alan Kidd,Melanie Tebbutt,2017-03-24 This book of essays on British social and cultural history since the eighteenth century draws attention to relatively neglected topics including personal and collective identities the meanings of place especially locality and the significance of cultures of association Themes range from rural England in the eighteenth century to the urbanizing society of the nineteenth century from the Home Front in the First World War to voluntary action in the welfare state from post 1945 civic culture to the advice columns of teenage magazines and the national press Various aspects of civil society connect these themes notably the different identities of place locality and association that emerged with the growth of an urban environment during the nineteenth century and the shifting landscape of twentieth century public discourse on social welfare and personal morality It is of interest that several of the essays take Manchester or Lancashire as their focus

Humorous stories About People, Places and Things James Payn,2024-06-02 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1972-09-12 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Message Received Greg Philo, 2014-06-11 Message Received brings together the most recent research findings of the Glasgow Media Group It focuses on major public issues such as the impact of fictional violence on children and media coverage of ethnic minorities the developing world and disasters It examines media representations of mental illness and public understanding of risks about this and about other areas such as health and food safety The Group has also studied controversies in the media such as the BSE crisis and other major events such as the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe Mission in Marginal Places: The Praxis Michael Pears, Paul Cloke, 2016-09-01 The second book in the series focuses on participation and practice and discusses a range of ways in which Kingdom centred mission can be embedded in the actually existing realms of activity and need in marginal places The book explores five different realms of practice each presenting opportunities for innovative expressions of incarnational attentiveness to marginalized communities and people It seeks to inspire prayerful and discerning activity that tunes into what Jesus is doing in local places rather than providing any kind of off the shelf checklist of prefigured mission tactics It challenges readers to take their faith praxis beyond orthodox congregational settings and out into the everyday realms of life in marginal places Language in Use Adrian Doff, Christopher Jones, 1994 Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament, 1904 Knowing and Doing John Rees, 1983 People, Places and Prehistory in Swaledale Helen Bainbridge, 2013-01-29 Helen Bainbridge takes us on a wonderful journey through the written history of prehistoric Swaledale from a time when flint arrow heads were thought to be petrified thunderbolts through the early and surprisingly perceptive antiquarians and the certainties of the digging and writing clergymen to the ground breaking work of Robert White Andrew Fleming and Tim Laurie which has inspired the 21st century investigation you can explore on the SWAAG website We now know that good history and archaeology raise more questions than they answer but the journey remains as exhilarating as ever This publication will be of interest to both newcomer and well seasoned enthusiast to the history of Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Drawing upon a wide range of text focussing on local prehistory fact fiction and anecdote are connected with actual finds to create a lively trawl through time Many of the illustrations have never been published and draw upon the riches of the Swaledale Museum archive
