Ghana A Historical Interpretation:

Ghana J. D. Fage,1959 Ghana, a Historical Interpretation John Donnelly Fage,1966 Ghana: a Historical Interpretation J. D. Fage,1959 Ghana John Donnelly Fage,1959 Ghana John Donnelly,1959 Ghana, post report,1986 Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo,2013-04-11 It has been maintained that the secular nature of modern human rights makes them incompatible with the religious orientation of African and non Western societies However in view of the resilience of religion in the global and local public sphere it is important to explore how religion can contribute to the promotion and enjoyment of human rights Based on fieldwork conducted in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo here establishes a convergence between human rights and local religious and cultural values in African societies He argues that human rights represent universal dream values This allows for a cultural embedding of human rights in Ghana and other non Western societies He argues that dream values are usually presented in religious language and proclaimed for example by prophets and seers or expressed in certain forms of taboo proverbs or legal norms He employs the concept of inculturation adaptation of the way Church teachings are presented to non Christian cultures as a hermeneutical tool for developing a model to understand the encounter between universal human rights and local cultures Offering a new model for explaining the relation between religion and human rights Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana offers a novel perspective on the links between global trends and local cultures underpinned by strong currents of religious ideas Culture and Customs of Ghana Steven J. Salm,Toyin Falola,2002-03-30 The decades of independence in Ghana have strengthened the idea of a national Ghanaian culture The culture and customs of Ghana today are a product of diversity in traditional forms influenced by a long history of Islamic and European contact Culture and Customs of Ghana is the first book to concisely provide an up to date narrative on the most significant elements of the established cultural life and institutions as well as the most recent changes in the cultural landscape Written expressly for students and the general reader it belongs in every library supporting multicultural and African studies curricula Ghana seeks to cultivate the philosophy of the African personality to revive maintain and promote Ghanaian ways of life and integrate them into political and social institutions Ghanaians also recognize their relationship to the rest of the world and continue to develop with the forces of globalization Culture and Customs of Ghana authoritatively discusses the vibrant and adaptable people from their religions to music and dance A chronology glossary and numerous photos complement the text Current Perspectives in the Archaeology of Ghana Anquandah, James,Kankpeyeng, Benjamin,2015-04-26 This collection of essays on archaeology and heritage studies is authored by local and expatriate scholars who are either past or current practitioners in archaeological work in Ghana They are from Ghana UK US and Canada The subject matter covered includes the history and evolution of the discipline in Ghana the method and theory or how to do it in archaeology field research reports and syntheses on findings from past and recent investigations The eclectic or multidisciplinary strategy has been the research vogue in Ghanaian archaeology recently and this is reflected in the various chapters The essays engage with current theoretical trends in global archaeology and also focus on the role and status of archaeology as a discipline in Ghanaian society today Archaeology is a relatively novel subject to many in Ghana This Reader will therefore be a huge asset to local students and experts alike Foreign scholars will also find it very useful Area Handbook for Ghana Irving Kaplan,1971 Post Report ,1986 Series of pamphlets on countries of the world revisions issued Christian Missions and Theological Training 1842-1970 J.K. Agbeti,2023-10-09 The training of African Christian ministers had been a matter of concern to the erstwhile International Missionary Council now merged with the World Council of Churches The reason was that it was believed by some critics that missionaries gave only low priority to theological training This book recounts how the missionaries actually trained the indigenous leaders in the mission fields The study covers the world of British German Swiss and American Protestant missionaries as well as that of two Roman Catholic orders in seminary training relating to Anglophone West Africa The value of the book is that its contents apart from filling a vacuum in the ecclesiastical history of West Africa will supply the factual basis upon which an objective evaluation can be given about the efforts of the Western missionary theological training until 1970 Pilgrimage Tourism of Diaspora Africans to Ghana Ann Reed,2014-08-27 Processes of globalization have led to diasporic groups longing for their homelands One such group includes descendants from African ancestors displaced by the trans Atlantic slave trade who may be uncertain about their families exact origins Traveling home often means visiting African sites associated with the slave trade journeys full of expectations The remembrance of the slave trade and pilgrimages to these heritage sites bear resemblance to other diasporic travels that center on trauma identification and redemption Based on over two years of ethnographic fieldwork with both diaspora Africans and Ghanaians this book explores why and how Ghana has been cast as a pilgrimage destination for people of African descent especially African Americans Grounding her research in Ghana s Central Region where slavery heritage tourism and political ideas promoting incorporation into one African family are prominent Reed also discusses the perspectives of ordinary Ghanaians tourism stakeholders and diasporan repatriates Providing ethnographic insight into the transnational networks of people and ideas entangled in Ghana s pilgrimage tourism this book also contributes to better understanding the broader global phenomenon of diasporic travel to homeland centers The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage,Roland Oliver,1975 The African and Middle Eastern World, 600-1500 Erin Cleary,2005 Agents and Audiences Agrhananda Bharati,2011-06-03 No detailed description available for Agents and Audiences The Political Ecology of Household Water in Northern Ghana Irit Eguavoen,2008 Household water provides the entry point for this ethnography and study of institutional change The book discusses the political economy of poverty and presents the polyphone discourse on water and the environment It outlines water history and water rights from the 1970s onwards and analyzes social dynamics It offers a critical voice in the debate on climate change by arguing that local and global perceptions are not necessarily coherent The Routledge

Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography Thula Simpson, Immanuel R. Harisch, 2025-05-09 The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography explores history's fortunes in Modern Africa south of the Sahara from the discipline's Golden Age as a handmaiden in struggles against colonialism to difficult decades when its survival has been threatened by capricious political and economic conditions and the uncertain present where the continent's historians struggle to justify their value to frequently sceptical publics In exploring the discipline's practical role in past struggles for African emancipation the volume speaks directly to these challenging but changing circumstances The chapters feature contributions from leading experts on historiographical traditions of different regions of the continent They collectively demonstrate how the process of instrumentalizing the past to advance lay struggles has influenced the choices historians have made regarding sources methodology interpretation audiences and platforms This practical application has strongly shaped the diverse forms that African historiography has assumed as reflected in this book The themes discussed offer a platform for inserting Africa into comparative studies of global historiographical traditions whilst also contributing to contemporary debates on decolonization In offering accessible insights from leading historians this is an essential handbook for students and scholars of African history and historiography as well as all those interested in postcolonial studies

Ghana Empire Foundations Bridget Langston, AI, 2025-05-03 Ghana Empire Foundations explores how the Ghana Empire a historical powerhouse in West Africa achieved and maintained its dominance through sophisticated administrative and economic strategies The book reveals that the empire's success wasn't solely due to its abundant gold reserves but also its adept governance and strategic control over vital trade routes For example the empire implemented structured systems for collecting tribute and maintaining order ensuring smooth trade interactions with Berber traders and other neighboring societies The book uniquely combines historical narrative with economic analysis providing a richer understanding of the interplay between governance resource management and trade in shaping the empire It challenges traditional views by emphasizing the critical role of administrative systems in maintaining order and facilitating trade Beginning with the empire's origins and geographical context the book progresses through detailed examinations of Ghana's administrative structure trade strategies and eventual decline using archaeological findings and historical accounts to support its analysis

Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism
