Idiots Delight:

A Ready-Made Life Chong-un Kim, 1998-07-01 A Ready Made Life is the first volume of early modern Korean fiction to appear in English in the U S Written between 1921 and 1943 the sixteen stories are an excellent introduction to the riches of modern Korean fiction They reveal a variety of settings voices styles and thematic concerns and the best of them masterpieces written mainly in the mid 1930s display an impressive artistic maturity Included among these authors are Hwang Sun won modern Korea s greatest short story writer Kim Tong in regarded by many as the author who best captures the essence of the Korean identity Ch ae Man shik a master of irony Yi Sang a prominent modernist Kim Yu jong whose stories are marked by a unique blend of earthy humor and compassion Yi Kwang su and Kim Tong ni modernizers of the language of twentieth century Korean fiction and Yi Ki y ng Yi T ae jun and Pak T ae won three writers who migrated to North Korea shortly after Liberation in 1945 and whose works were subsequently banned in South Korea until democratization in the late 1980s One way of reading the stories all of which were written during the Japanese occupation is that beneath their often oppressive and gloomy surface lies an anticolonial subtext They can also be read as a collective record of a people whose life choices were severely restricted not just by colonization but by education either too little or too much as the title story shows and by a highly structured society that had little tolerance for those who overstepped its boundaries Life was unremittingly onerous for many Koreans during this period whatever their social background In the stories educated city folk fare little better than farmers and laborers A Ready Made Life will provide scholars and students with crucial access to the literature of Korea s colonial period A generous opening essay discusses the collection in the context of modern Korean literary history and short introductions precede each story Here is a richly diverse testament to a modern literature that is poised to assume a long overdue place in world literature Hollywood Censored Gregory D. Black, 1994 After a series of sex scandals rocked the film industry in 1922 movie moguls hired Will Hays to clear the image of movies Hays tried a variety of ways to regulate movies before adopting what became known as the production code Written in 1930 by a St Louis priest the code stipulated that movies stress proper behaviour respect for government and Christian values The Catholic Church reinforced these efforts by launching its Legion of Decency in 1934 Intended to force Hays and Hollywood to censor films the Legion of Decency engineered the appointment of Joseph Breen as head of the Production Code Administration For the next three decades Breen Hays and the Catholic Legion of Decency virtually controlled the content of all Hollywood films New York Magazine , 1986-03-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Idiot's Delight Robert Emmet Sherwood, 1961 The Writing

Sampler Michael F. Hemingway, 2007-08-26 A modern and stylish compilation of contemporary writings which includes 41 especially selected creative shorts stories excerpts anecdotes essays poetry thoughts satire and commentary about personal endeavor

Hollywood and Hitler, 1933-1939 Thomas Doherty, 2013-04-02 Between 1933 and 1939 representations of the Nazis and the full meaning of Nazism came slowly to Hollywood growing more ominous and distinct only as the decade wore on Recapturing what ordinary Americans saw on the screen during the emerging Nazi threat Thomas Doherty reclaims forgotten films such as Hitler's Reign of Terror 1934 a pioneering anti Nazi docudrama by Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr I Was a Captive of Nazi Germany 1936 a sensational true tale of a Hollywood girl in Naziland and Professor Mamlock 1938 an anti Nazi film made by German refugees living in the Soviet Union Doherty also recounts how the disproportionately Jewish backgrounds of the executives of the studios and the workers on the payroll shaded reactions to what was never simply a business decision As Europe hurtled toward war a proxy battle waged in Hollywood over how to conduct business with the Nazis how to cover Hitler and his victims in the newsreels and whether to address or ignore Nazism in Hollywood feature films Should Hollywood lie low or stand tall and sound the alarm Doherty's history features a cast of charismatic personalities Carl Laemmle the German Jewish founder of Universal Pictures whose production of All Quiet on the Western Front 1930 enraged the nascent Nazi movement Georg Gyssling the Nazi consul in Los Angeles who read the Hollywood trade press as avidly as any studio mogul Vittorio Mussolini son of the fascist dictator and aspiring motion picture impresario Leni Riefenstahl the Valkyrie goddess of the Third Reich who came to America to peddle distribution rights for Olympia 1938 screenwriters Donald Ogden Stewart and Dorothy Parker founders of the Hollywood Anti Nazi League and Harry and Jack Warner of Warner Bros who yoked anti Nazism to patriotic Americanism and finally broke the embargo against anti Nazi cinema with Confessions of a Nazi Spy 1939 Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1940s Felicia Hardison Londré, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major playwrights and their works to receive in depth coverage in this volume include Eugene O'Neill The Iceman Cometh 1946 A Moon for the Misbegotten 1947 Long Day's Journey Into Night written 1941 produced 1956 and A Touch of the Poet written 1942 produced 1958 Tennessee Williams The Glass Menagerie 1944 A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 Summer and Smoke 1948 Arthur Miller All My Sons 1947 Death of a Salesman 1949 and The Crucible 1953 Thornton Wilder Our Town 1938 The Skin of Our Teeth 1942 Shadow of a Doubt 1943 and The Alcestiad written 1940s The World According to Hollywood, 1918-1939 Ruth Vasey, 1997 The most visible cultural institution on earth between the World Wars the Hollywood movie industry tried to satisfy worldwide audiences of vastly different cultural religious and political persuasions The World According to Hollywood shows how the industry's self regulation shaped the content of films to make them salable in as many markets as possible In the process Hollywood created an idiosyncratic vision of the world that was glamorous and exotic but also oddly narrow Ruth Vasey shows how the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America (MPPDA) by implementing such strategies as the industry's Production Code ensured that domestic and foreign distribution took place with a minimum of censorship or consumer resistance Drawing upon MPPDA archives studio records trade papers and the records of the U.S. Department of Commerce Vasey reveals the ways the MPPDA influenced the representation of sex violence religion foreign and domestic politics corporate capitalism ethnic minorities and the conduct of professional classes Vasey is the first scholar to document fully how the demands of the global market frequently dictated film content and created the movies homogenized picture of social and racial characteristics in both urban America and the world beyond She uncovers telling evidence of scripts and treatments that were abandoned before or during the course of production because of content that might offend foreign markets Among the fascinating points she discusses is Hollywood's frequent use of imaginary countries as story locales resulting from a deliberate business policy of avoiding realistic depictions of actual countries She argues that foreign governments perceived movies not just as articles of trade but as potential commercial and political emissaries of the United States Just as Hollywood had to persuade its domestic audiences that its products were morally sound its domination of world markets depended on its ability to create a culturally and politically acceptable product TEN MOVIES AT A TIME John DiLeo, 2017-11-01 John DiLeo is the author of five other books about classic movies And You Thought You Knew Classic Movies 100 Great Film Performances You Should Remember But Probably Don't Screen Savers 40 Remarkable Movies Awaiting Rediscovery Tennessee Williams and Company His Essential Screen Actors and Screen Savers II My Grab Bag of Classic Movies His website is johndileo.com and his Twitter handle is JOHNDiLEO The Graham Greene Film Reader Graham Greene, 1994 Gathers Greene's film writings and offers a brief introduction to the role of motion pictures in his life and career American Isolationism Between the World Wars Kenneth D. Rose, 2021-04-25 American Isolationism Between the World Wars The Search for a Nation's Identity examines the theory of isolationism in America between the world wars arguing that it is an ideal that has dominated the Republic since its founding During the interwar period isolationists could be found among Republicans and Democrats Catholics and Protestants pacifists and militarists rich and poor While the dominant historical assessment of isolationism that it was provincial and short sighted will be examined this book argues that American isolationism between 1919 and the mid 1930s was a rational foreign policy simply because the European reversion back to politics as usual insured that the continent would remain unstable Drawing on a wide range of newspaper and journal articles biographies congressional hearings personal papers and numerous secondary sources Kenneth D Rose suggests the time has come for a paradigm shift in how American isolationism is viewed The text also offers a reflection on isolationism since the end of World War II particularly the nature of isolationism during the Trump era This book will be of interest to students and scholars of U S Foreign Relations and twentieth century American history
