If I Were Writing This Robert Creeley, 2008-08 If I were writing this was the last book of poems completed by Robert Creeley and published during his lifetime New Directions 2005 The words he wrote to describe this book are oddly prophetic Age brings experience not wisdom age makes time actual each day another until there is no more These poems have been my company my solace my feelings my heart When they cannot speak it will all be silence Though Creeley died in 2005 his poems are not silent they vibrantly continue to embrace life while acknowledging with no self pity the inevitability of death The message as he always ended his letters is Onward

If I Were God SRASHTI BEHURE, 2021-06-30 Humans often under dire situations end up cursing and thrashing the belief in the Almighty A man is thankful of Him and His blessings if they work in his favour and aid him to grow and glow Yet there comes a time when nothing in life seems to be going his way and he feels that God just isn't there for him anymore not standing beside him deaf to all his prayers and blind to all his miseries Isn't that the moment when a man's strongest urge is to become a God himself and make every little affliction and sorrow vanish off the face of his life with just one flick of a finger If I Were God is a compendium of several such moments in the form of short stories poems and essays put into relatable words by our remarkable bunch of writers This collection has been anthologized with toil and dedication by compiler Srashti Behure and Divya Renwa Do read and enjoy the near deja vu instances scribbled in with adoration and kindness not the purpose of this book although it's a definite effect. It's true that I'm a USA Today bestselling author which I have to admit surprises me as much as anyone. My husband and I also own a trucking company. We have two twenty thousand bird free range laying houses, our eggs are probably in your grocery store, raise grass fed beef cattle, homeschool our kids, and are on a first name basis with the Game Warden and the state police, mostly because of the kids and not really my husband. I frequently cook for strangers, occasionally hide from my family, and own more fire extinguishers than the average person for good reason. Sometimes when I sit down at my computer instead of writing the next chapter in my latest romance, I write about my life. Sometimes it's fun. Sometimes funny. Sometimes it's heartbreaking, and sometimes you just see life through the eyes of a farmer growing older every day and maybe just a little wiser. We do a lot of laughing, some crying, and every day is a learning experience wrapped in the love of God and held in His hand. That's what I share with you in this book. Thanks so much for spending some time with me today.

Love, Jessie
