Grace and Fury Elbie Lovett, 2001-04 Regret entered his tortured mind as he viewed the desolation, especially after a bitch wolf treed him. A beautiful Indian lady whose life of misery equal to Brent's rescued him, creating devotion to each other. Brent's big problem of hating crowds and girls matched her dislike for drunks and town floozies. The neighbors recognized their plight and tried to intervene only to make matters worse. In time gunplay and horseracing turned their life into a pleasant one. Brent fell for a neighbor's daughter but almost lost the battle. With more finesse Jenny's suitor courted her into the year nineteen hundred twenty-nine. Contrary to modern belief the country and times were hard for people of Indian descent. More so for seven-year-old Brent McCord whose white mother and stepfather give sadistic pleasure at abusing him. To escape the brutal life he jumped off the back of the slow-moving truck into the forbidding badlands of New Mexico. Matrimony leaving no room for Brent Norma finally conquered Brent. Just as their love blossomed the Army Draftboard took him away. The sequel Grace and Fury II continues the saga.
