Light Architecture New Interventions On The Urban Scene:

New Approaches in Contemporary Architecture and Urbanism Edited by Dr. Hourakhsh Ahmad Nia, 2020-07-01 This book is an intellectual discourse and a concise compendium of current research in architecture and urbanism. Primarily it is a book of readings of 16 chapters. The book brings together theories, manifestos, and methodologies on contemporary architecture and urbanism to raise the understanding for the future architecture and urban planning. Overall, the book aimed to establish a bridge between theory and practice in built environment. Thus, it reports on the latest research findings and innovative approaches, methodologies for creating, assessing, and understanding of contemporary built environment. Demystifying Doha Ashraf M. Salama, Florian Wiedmann, 2016-05-23 Over the past decade or so, the wealth produced by Qatar's oil and gas exports has generated a construction development boom in its capital city of Doha and the surrounding vicinity. Since the late 1990s, the number of inhabitants has grown from less than 400,000 to more than 1.7 million today. In many respects, Doha is portrayed as an important emerging global capital in the Gulf region, which has been positioning and re-inventing itself on the map of international architecture and urbanism with a global image of building clusters of glass office towers, as well as cultural and educational facilities. While focusing on the architectural and planning aspects of Doha's intensive urbanization, this first comprehensive examination of the city sets this within the socio-political and economic context of the wider Arabian Peninsula. Demystifying Doha: On Architecture and Urbanism in an Emerging City features a comprehensive discussion on contemporary architecture and urbanism of Doha as an emerging regional metropolis. It provides a critical analysis of the evolution of architecture and urbanism as products of the contemporary global condition. Issues that pertain to emerging service hubs, decentralised urban governance, integrated urban development strategies, image-making practices, urban identity, the dialectic relations between the city and its society, and sustainable urbanism are all examined to elucidate the urban evolution and the contemporary condition of Doha. Demystifying Doha: On Architecture and Urbanism in an Emerging City concludes by suggesting a framework for future studies of the city, as well as for investigating the future of similar cities, setting out an agenda for sustainable urban growth while invigorating the multiple roles urban planners and architects can play in shaping this future. The Urban Scene and the History of the Future, 1995 Urban Challenges in the Globalizing Middle-East Simona Azzali, Silvia Mazzetto, Attilio Petruccioli, 2021-04-20 This publication aims to investigate the nature of social life in public and urban spaces in the cities of the Middle East, considering the value of environmental approaches. It aims to develop a better understanding of the patterns of social interactions and activities in public places, which have been influenced by cultural heritage values. Sustainable and livable open spaces can help in improving living conditions in cities. Public spaces are relevant as they satisfy many human needs. In public spaces, people interact and meet. People with different cultures and social backgrounds can communicate and learn from each other in social and spontaneous ways. However, decision makers tend to forget the value of public spaces, especially in the absence of a national regulatory framework in emerging globalized cities The book provides a multi disciplinary approach in reading the characteristics and values of public spaces in the emerging cities of the Middle East Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001 Carlos

Gilbert,2012-12-06 This book is about the plants and animals of urban areas not the urban fringe not encapsulated countryside but those parts of towns where man s impact is greatest The powerful anthropogenic influences that operate in cities have until recently rendered them unattractive to ecologists who find the high proportion of exotics and mixtures of planted and spontaneous vegetation bewildering They are also unused to considering fashion taste mowing machines and the behaviour of dog owners as habitat factors I have always maintained however J nd I hope this book demonstrJ tes that there are as many interrelationships to be uncovered in a flower bed as in a field in a cemetery as on a sand dune and due to the well documented history of urban sites together with the strong effects of management they are frequently easier to interpret than those operating in more natural areas The potential of these communities as rewarding areas for study is revealed in the literature on the pests of stored products urban foxes and birds The journals oflocal natural history societies have also provided a rich source of material as amateurs have never been averse to following the fortunes of their favourite groups into the heart of our cities It is predictable that among the few professionals to specialize in this discipline have been those
